Astronauts' Spirits High With Flight On Schedule

White Tells More Of Stroll In Space

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Astronauts James McDivitt and Edward White whirled into the second day of their marathon space mission today, their spirits high and their flight plan back on schedule after some hectic early hours during which White strolled in space.

The Mission Control Center said everything appeared favorable for the Gemini 4 spacecraft to complete its full 97-hour, 50-minute mission.

If there are no hitches, America's longest manned space flight will end at 12:06 p.m. EST Monday with a parachute splashdown in the Atlantic Ocean 400 miles southwest of Bermuda.

During a pass over the Houston Control Center on the 14th orbit today, White told capsule communicator Virgil Grissom a few more details about his 20-minute excursion into space during orbit No. 3 yesterday.

'VIVID BLUE'

White described as "vivid blue" the waters of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean. He said he clearly saw Houston and Galveston Bay as he floated on the end of a golden lifeline more than 100 miles above the earth.

He said he even saw Clear Lake, about 3 miles long and 1½ miles wide, near the Houston homes of both astronauts.

White said the jet-gun maneuvering unit he used made it much easier to move about outside the capsule. When he wasn't using it, he said, he had difficulty getting around.

ON EQUIPMENT

White also said he had walked on the equipment section of the Gemini 4 during his excursion.

"It looked like I was right on top of it," he said, "It's kinda hard to get traction."

Then Grissom passed on some news from home. He reported that the Hawks, a Pee - Wee League baseball team for which McDivitt's 8-year-old son Mike plays, defeated the Falcons, 3-2. McDivitt was asleep at the time the word was relayed.

ORIGINAL PLAN

The plan had been disrupted during the first three orbits when McDivitt made a futile attempt to catch and rendezvous with another satellite — the burned-out third stage of the Titan 2 rocket that boosted them into orbit.

After expending about 40 per cent of his fuel, McDivitt abandoned the effort. The chase contributed to a one-orbit delay in White's space excursion.

Hodge said that throughout the night, the Gemini 4 was allowed to drift on its orbital patch without any expenditure of fuel.

Hodge said two orbit-changing maneuvers would be dropped from the flight and there would be some curtailment of scientific experiments that require spacecraft maneuvering.

He said McDivitt and White were getting used to sleeping in space after initial "tossing and turning" periods. Each slept

Yanks Take Viet Offense, But Two Die

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Marines killed 19 Viet Cong and wounded 11 in skirmishes today in the Da Nang-Phu Bai area, a spokesman announced. He said two Marines were killed and 19 wounded.

The Leathernecks took the offensive in a day of scattered ground fighting across South Viet Nam, in which the Viet Cong strove to maintain the initiative. Government casualties for today and yesterday rose to at least 239 killed, wounded and missing.

CRISIS SOLVED

In Saigon, the National Legislative Council apparently resolved a political crisis simmering for two weeks. The 20-member council upheld a right of Premier Phan Huy Quat, challenged by Phan Khac Suu, chief of state, to fire two Cabinet ministers. A spokesman said Suu was now supporting Quat

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, who postponed a projected trip to Washington last weekend to keep watch on the crisis, may now head to the United States in the next few days.

NORTH VIET TROOPS

A ranking U.S. military spokesman, speaking of the makeup of enemy forces, said there are so many of North Viet Nam's regular troops fighting now in South Viet Nam "it is becoming academic" whether they are here as regular North Vietnamese units.

Vietnamese troops were caught in two more Communist ambushes, one a followup action by the Reds to an earlier ambush near Lao Thien, about 150 miles northeast of Saigon.

Casualties in the first ambush of a six-vehicle convoy yesterday totaled 15 government troops killed, 15 wounded and 15 missing. Two armored cars were destroyed, two trucks damaged and two machine guns lost. Communist losses were not known.

SLOBS? NO, GRUBS—Barefoot Sue Sampson and jean-clad Edward Saam were in typical attire today at College of Marin, because it was "Grub Day," when students dress grubbily on purpose. But, complained college trustees at their meeting last night, too many of the students dress sloppily every day, "Grub Day" or not. (Independent-Journal photo)

THE LAST HURRAH — The Marshall School, established in 1876, will cease operation with the close of classes on June 17. Trustees of Tomales Bay School District voted last night to move all classes to Tomales, but to keep the school for library and meeting use—and possibly some day a kindergarten. College Board Asks Answers On 'Sloppy Students, Mess'

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

"We walked around campus today and it's a horrible mess," Robert E. Oliver, president of the Marin Junior College District board, told College of Marin student body president Renato Sottile last night.

"Also, we are scarcely pleased at the appearance of the students," added trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy.

Oliver said the board is being asked during budget discussions to hire more people to pick up after sloppy students, and that money is scarce. He asked what could be done to keep litter off the ground.

Sottile agreed the problem was serious. He said a new campus club, the Marin Tars, had been formed to help with the problem, but did not have enough members to be effective yet.

Sottile said he was opposed to using the sanctions often applied by high schools of taking away student privileges. He claimed the litter problem near the cafeteria, the only area swept during the day, would be improved with opening of the new student center.

"It's not just the campus center area," answered Mrs. Deedy. "It's a disgrace all over. It's ruining the most beautiful campus in California."

Turning to the dress of the students, she said she felt teachers should expel students from their classes and fail them if they do not dress more acceptably.

She complained especially about barefoot girls with hair in curlers and about "stretch pants out of keeping with the size of the anatomy." Her complaints brought applause from the audience, made up largely of teachers and administration members.

Sottile, on the spot, said part of the bad reputation for the campus comes from high school students on campus at night. "At dances, I personally have had to turn away eighth graders," he said, "and they were as big as I am."

"But I haven't seen a girl in class in curlers and with bare feet," he declared.

He promised to bring the dress and litter problems before the student body executive council, but he predicted, "the executive council is going to find it a pretty touchy question to have to decide how much stretch there is in stretch pants."

"I know that," answered Mrs. Deedy, "but you can do better than you have."

"Tomorrow is grub day on campus," Sottile reported, saying that there would be worse clothes than usual seen.

"That's any day," said Oliver.

Corte Madera Creek Flood Control Funds Danger Seen

Construction of the flood control project at the southern end of Corte Madera Creek may not begin by May, 1966.

Marin County officials learned yesterday that there is a chance the $800,000 federal application for the first phase of the work may not be approved in Washington. Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said the decision would be made by the end of next week.

Frost said $180,000 for design work will definitely be in the budget in state money available for acquisition may not clear the legislature this session.

Administrative Analyst A. Alan Post of the joint legislative budget committee wrote Frost to say there would be no need for the full allocation for land acquisition if federal construction funds are not forthcoming.

Meanwhile, Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen has recommended that a request for landscaping studies on the creek by the county planning commission by Tuesday be withdrawn. He said he saw no point in rushing this work "before we see whether or not we have a project."

Frost said the latest development in Washington was not due to the local difficulties in getting an agency or agencies to guarantee maintenance of the channel and tributaries. He said the project is simply not so sure as earlier supposed.

Eureka Rail Service Reopening Predicted

The general manager of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad says he expects to reopen service to Eureka by June 12.

C. E. Neal said yesterday that trains will begin to run as soon as bridges at South Fork and Island Mountain on the Eel River are completed.

Tax Reform Is Predicted, But Not Total

By FRANK FARRARA

State Finance Director Hale Champion predicted last night that the legislature will pass a revenue program with some tax reforms "here and there, but not total reform."

Champion backed Gov. Edmund G. Brown's tax program during a debate on tax plans before about 40 persons at College of Marin.

Raymond Sullivan, assistant consultant to the Assembly committee on revenue and taxation, argued in favor of the billion-dollar revenue plan proposed by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and Assemblyman Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland.

Champion discribed the Unruh-Petris bill as "a massive reform" that would give California the highest overall tax structure of any state.

Sullivan said the Unruh-Petris bill, which calls for a one per cent sales tax increase and an income tax increase under a withholding plan, would lower property taxes.

"To lower the property tax is our major concern," Sullivan said. "We want revenue sources

Two Planes Crash; Five Crewmen Die

ROSWELL, N.M. (UPI) — A KC135 jet refueling tanker and an F100 Supersaber jet crashed within hours of each other late yesterday and early today in New Mexico. The tanker crash killed all five men aboard.

The pilot of the Supersaber was picked up by a helicopter shortly after bailing out of the plane which went down in an empty field four miles west of Melrose in northern New Mexico.

SENTIMENTAL PANGS

One-Room School Is Ending Classes

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Trustees of the Tomales Bay School District, with a good many sentimental pangs, voted unanimously last night to hold no more classes in the one-room Marshall School after the end of the current school year on June 17.

However, the board agreed to continue operating the school "for school purposes" at least for one more year.

This apparent paradox was dictated by the sentiment of the Marshall community and by the deed under which the school district holds the property.

The Marshall School, established in 1876, was deeded to the Tomales School District by the late Fanny A. Kleiser with a reversionary clause. If the property should be used for anything other than school purposes it would revert to Mrs. Kleiser's heirs.

"It says school purposes, not classes," trustee Lois Parks of Tomales noted.

Last night's action came at the end of a three-hour meeting attended by 27 persons in the school.

Board chairman Walton Burbank told the Marshall residents the district would continue to maintain the school and use it perhaps as a library and maybe, eventually, as a kindergarten.

School Site Bill Passes

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill designed to block major subdividers from cashing in on a school district's need for a site cleared the Assembly today by a 62-0 vote.

The measure by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, would require subdivision developers of 400 or more homes to dedicate land to a school district at the going price.

Bagley said the bill was needed to prevent developers from holding the land for speculative purposes, then selling a school site for an exorbitant price.

ASTRONAUTS UP 4 DAYS– NIGHTS, TOO

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The Albany Times-Union received a telephone call last night from a man who asked if astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II were to remain aloft for four days.

Assured that this was correct, the anonymous caller asked:

"Yeah, well what I want to know is, are they going to stay up there at night too?"

Non-Academic Proposal Gains

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A public school teaching credential could be awarded to persons not having an academic major or minor in college under a proposal approved by the Assembly Education Committee.

The bill by Assemblyman George W. Milias, R-Gilroy, would accept the non-academic major for teachers of grades one through nine if the non-academic subject is required teaching in those grades.

A roll call vote of 11-3 sent the bill to the Assembly floor yesterday.

Senate Passes Trespass Law

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation designed to control sit-ins, shop-ins, stand-ins, and other civil rights protest devices has been sent to the Assembly.

The bill by Sen. Robert J. Lagomarsino, R-Ojai, passed the Senate last night, 21 to 11.

Lagomarsino said no other trespass law can now control situations where demonstrators attempt to stall business operations in restaurants, supermarkets and banks.

Space Coasting Greatest Fun

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Astronaut Edward H. White seemed almost to be in love with space.

For the moment, it was all his. Like a child, he didn't want to leave.

"Get back in," came the near stern command from his fellow astronaut James A. McDivitt.

The reply? Laughter could be heard as White dangled 103 miles in space silently coasting through the great void at 17,500 miles an hour.

This was an exhilaration known to only one other man. This was excitement, and beauty. This was the reason for being an astronaut.

The schedule called for only a 9 or 10 minute stay. But things like that are hard to give up. White seemed to dawdle.

McDivitt cautioned him again: "You still have three and a half more days to go, buddy."

But McDivitt was strapped in a capsule. That was one thing, but White was floating in space, tied to the capsule only by a 25-foot-long goldplated lifeline.

The planned 10-minute stay was stretching out. White, toyed with his space gun in a Buck Rogers-like exercise.

Firing a blast of compressed oxygen, he moved himself around the space capsule. Inside, McDivitt took pictures.

"Move closer," he urged White.

When he did, McDivitt told him, "smile."

Then the free-wheeling White apparently got too close to McDivitt's windshield with his jet-propulsion gun.

"You're smearing up my windshield, you dirty dog," quipped McDivitt.

It didn't sound dramatic. But it was. It was dangerous, too.

White and McDivitt knew it. While they joked, death in its most fantastic form was there.

A meteorite could puncture White's $26,000 space suit. Or an oxygen leak could dim his senses, leaving him confused and disoriented.

But now, White was nearing the 20 - minute mark in his stroll. He still could not get over the joy of it.

"This is fun," he told McDivitt when the astronaut again urged him to re-enter the capsule.

The "fun" White described could be converted into statistics that boggle the mind of the man in the street.

White had left the capsule as it soared toward the California coast. He did not re-enter until the space ship was east of the Dominican Republic, having crossed the entire United States.

He had claimed space for his own for a total of 20 minutes — 10 more minutes than his Soviet counterpart, Lt. Col. Alexei Leonov, who turned his feat last March 18.

Johnson Asks Soviets To Join Peace Search

CHICAGO (AP) — President Johnson has told the people of the Soviet Union he wants them to withdraw support of aggression and subversion and join the United States in a common search for peace.

Appearing last night before several thousand Cook County Democrats who paid $100 a plate to hear him deliver his first on-the-record speech to a political audience since the November election, Johnson said at the outset: "I do not believe this is an appropriate place tonight for partisanship."

Declaring that the peace of mankind transcends political considerations, Johnson said he had this message for the people of the Soviet Union: "There is no American interest in conflict with the Soviet people anywhere. And no true Soviet interest is going to be served by the support of aggression or subversion anywhere in the world.

"We of the United States of America stand ready tonight, as always, to go with you onto the fields of peace."

The audience applauded his unusual message to the Soviets.

However, the applause seemed even noisier when the President announced later in his speech that he had ordered the withdrawal of the 2,100 Marines still in the Dominican Republic.

Johnson said the nation's purpose in Santo Domingo and elsewhere "is—and will always be —to serve the peace of mankind."

He said, "The American people want to be a part of no war. But the American people want no part of appeasement or of any aggression."

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Trial Of Twin Goes To Jury

PASADENA (AP) — The four-week murder trial of wealthy Timothy Nicholson, accused of fatally shooting his twin brother and co-heir, is in the hands of Superior Court jurors who have these alternatives:

Acquittal of the 22-year-old defendant; a verdict of guilty in either the first or second degree; a finding that he committed either voluntary or involuntary manslaughter.

Still another possibility would be their failure to agree on a verdict, in which event a mistrial would be declared and the case probably would be set for retrial.

Judge H. Burton Noble gave the case to the jury of seven men and five women yesterday and instructed the panel to begin its deliberations today.

Space Objects Number 1,391

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—It may be Gemini-4 to everyone else, but it's just Space Object 1,390 to the men at the Air Force track center. Its burned-out second stage rocket is No. 1,391.

The center, which keeps track of man-made objects in space, assigns a number to each object detected, whether American or Russian.

The center thought for a moment about giving astronaut Edward White a number when he walked out in space, then decided against it. The rule is: An object must make at least one orbit by itself to win a number.

Mrs. Robert A. Scarborough is president of the Sausalito Friends of the Library.

Sanitation Budget Tax Cut Studied

A proposed $749,000 budget for fiscal 1966, carrying a two-cent reduction in the tax rate, was presented to the San Rafael Sanitation District board yesterday by Norris M. Rawles, district administrator.

The proposed budget carries a tax rate of 37 cents per $100 assessed valuation, which includes six-cents for bond redemption.

Directors agreed to discuss the budget at their next session, June 17 at 5 p.m. at San Rafael City Hall.

A breakdown of the budget shows $112,394 for the operating fund, $185,450, construction fund, and $451,156, expansion fund.

Rawles recommended that the district continue the study started by the city on a new interceptor sewer for the area north of Third Street and east of Irwin Street.

The board adopted an ordinance, effective in 30 days, setting the connection fee to the Simms Street sanitary sewer extension at $3.72 per lineal foot frontage.

Directors also accepted the low bid of R and H Construction of San Rafael to install a pressure manhole and 36 feet of line under a planned county street in connection with the Simms Street extension. There were two bidders on the job, with R and H low at $1,739.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini, a member of the board, was absent.

Real Estate Board Scholarships Awarded To Outstanding Seniors

Scholarships totaling $1,450 have been awarded to four outstanding high school seniors by the Marin County Real Estate Board.

Top award, a $500 scholarship, went to Wayne Parks of Tomales High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parks of Tomales. This is the Archie Culpepper Scholarship, named for the 1949 real estate board president.

Young Parks, who has won several scholarships, plans to enroll next fall at California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo.

Second award, a $400 scholarship, went to Michaela J. Fogerty of Sir Francis Drake High School, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Fogerty of 35 Cedar Street, San Anselmo.

Third, a $300 scholarship, was awarded to Ronald W. Skellenger, also a Drake High senior. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Skellenger of 235 Sequoia Drive, San Anselmo.

Fourth, a $250 scholarship, was awarded to Stephen Frazzini of Terra Linda High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Frazzini of 2150 Elderberry Lane, Marinwood.

The winners were selected from among about 40 applicants by a committee of real estate board members headed by Edward P. Ward. Selection was on the basis of scholastic performance, citizenship, activities and need, said Daniel F. Deedy, executive secretary of the real estate board. The scholarships may be used at any college or university in the United States, for any field of study.

In presenting the awards at a breakfast meeting at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant in San Rafael, president Hugh G. Marchant noted that this is the eighth year the Archie Culpepper scholarship has been awarded The additional scholarships have been added more recently as the board has expanded its scholarship program.

New Trials For Four Convicted Slayers Ordered

New trials for four San Quentin inmates convicted of murder were ordered yesterday by the State Supreme Court.

The four were convicted of the 1962 shooting of Oscar J. Williams in Los Angeles.

They were George W. Bostick, 29, sentenced to death for the shooting; William Davis Jr., 28; Clarence Pitts, 37 and Jimmie Lawson, 25, who all shared in $1,000 taken from the dead man, each serving life terms.

The Supreme Court's 5 to 2 vote was based on the Dorado decision. The court held that Los Angeles police had failed to inform the four men before taking confessions from them of their right to counsel or to remain silent once suspected of the crime.

The court also warned in the same decision that a prosecuting attorney who comments before a jury about a defendant's failure to take the witness stand may be committing a reversible error.

Tuition Fee Hike Is Voted

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) —The Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges voted yesterday to increase the tuition fee for non-resident students by $40 per year.

The board, at the final session of a two-day meeting, granted approval to raise non-resident tuition from $500 to $540 effective this fall, after a public hearing on bringing the fees nearer the cost of instruction per pupil.

The fee does not apply to foreign students, who pay $225 a year.

Quentin Village Driver Injured

Eve J. Zablocki, 19, of San Quentin Village, suffered a cut forehead in a two-car collision at 4 p.m. yesterday on Highway 101.

Highway patrolmen reported that the accident near the south city limits of San Rafael happened when the car driven by Miss Zablocki struck one driven by George W. Haddad, 10 Harkle Road, Novato, which had slowed for traffic ahead in the northbound lanes.

Mysterious Head Bump Is Studied

Nine-year-old Timothy Agree of Tamalpais Valley was reported in "fair condition" today at Marin General Hospital after receiving a mysterious bump on the head last night.

Timothy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Acree of 209 Cardinal Road, was found unconscious in the gutter at Flamingo and Cardinal roads about 9:15 p.m.

On the boy's head was a "big knot," said Tamalpais firemen who gave him resuscitation for 12 minutes.

Mrs. Acree said today she is still puzzled as to what happened.

"Timothy was not riding his bike," she said. "He was just running or walking. Maybe he got hit by a rock or a car—but there are no marks on him. He doesn't remember what happened to him."

The boy was staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Henke of 263 Cardinal Road while the Acrees attended a Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club meeting. He was being watched by baby sitter Bill Henke, a teen-ager.

"Bill went to the corner, about a block away and saw Tim lying in the street," Mrs. Acree said.

Sleepy Hollow Meeting Today

Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn. directors plan to hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. today to discuss again a proposal to lower the minimum age for swimmers unaccompanied by adults in the community pool.

At last night's regular meeting, it was tentatively voted to lower the minimum age from 10 to seven years, providing the swimmers can pass tests given by lifeguards.

The pool will open weekends beginning tomorrow, and full-time on June 19.

Motorist Unhurt As Car Hits Ditch

Sharon M. Whitted, 20, of 62 Rancheria Road, Kentfield, escaped injury yesterday at 6:15 p.m. when she was pinned beneath her sports car in a water-filled ditch after the car went off Highway 101 near Cort Madera.

Highway patrolman Donald Dowling saw the upside-down car and with a motorist who had stopped, lifted it off Miss Whitted, who was holding her head above water, he reported.

Buffer Zone Sewer Site Is Approved

An offer of 7.7 acres adjacent to the Novato sewer plant site at the east end of Davidson Street for $20,000 was accepted last night by Novato Sanitary District directors, according to Charles Joseph, district manager-engineer.

The property, owned by Robert McClelland of Novato, would provide a buffer zone between the plant and residences, he said.

well on their second four-hour slumber period, he reported.

"Now that we're back on a regular schedule," Hodge said, "we'll be able to start working out compatible, work, sleep and eat cycles for future long-duration flights."

This is one of the major goals of the flight, along with gathering of medical data to determine how well the astronauts withstand long exposure to the weightless world of space.

Gemini 4 began its second 24-hour period at 10:16 a.m. EST today. At 8:37 p.m. it will surpass Gordon Cooper's U.S. man-in-space record, of 34 hours 20 minutes, established in May 1963.

Russian cosmonaut Valery Bykovsky holds the record of 119 hours 6 minutes.

White took over the controls of Gemini 4 shortly after 6:15 a.m. (EST) to let command pilot James McDivitt relax in his second sleep period.

Mission control informed the astronauts their capsule was revolving about the earth in an orbit that ranged from 101 miles at its lowest point to 179 miles at the highest.

Employers, Millmen Meeting

Representatives of the striking Millmen's Union and employers were to meet with a federal conciliator this afternoon in an effort to end a labor dispute in Marin and five other Bay Area counties.

Clell E. Harris of Corte Madera, commissioner of conciliation, said the union and the Lumber and Mill Employers Assn. were "quite a way apart" when he met with them last Friday. A meeting into the early hours yesterday failed to settle the disagreement.

Pickets were still marching today in front of Marin members of the employers' association and some independent firms. Mission Wood Products of San Rafael reported pickets increased to five today from the one who had previously appeared. Also picketed again were Fairfax Lumber Co., Kent Manufacturing Co. in Corte Madera, and Larkspur Lumber Co.

Agrees To Face Murder Charge

BOGALUSA, La. (AP)—Ernest Ray McElveen, white man accused in the slaying of a Negro deputy sheriff, waived extradition in Mississippi today and agreed to return to Louisiana to face murder charges.

The Associated Press learned that McElveen, 41, a laboratory technician at the huge paper mill here, would be brought back to this southeast Louisiana city later today.

McElveen was stopped by a marshal at Tylertown—40 miles northwest of here—an hour after the Negro deputy was shot and killed by persons in a black pickup truck with a Confederate flag decal on its right front bumper.

This description of the truck fitted that of the truck McElveen was driving when stopped at Tylertown, officers said.

Open Meeting Proposal Gains

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Highway Commission would be required to open all its meetings to the public under a measure passed 54-4 today by the Assembly.

The bill by Assemblyman Frank Lanterman, R-La Canada, would make it a misdemeanor for commission members to meet in secret to make decisions.

It also would provide that any actions taken at a secret meeting would be held invalid.

The bill now goes to the Senate.

Siamese Twins Die In Hospital

HOUSTON (UPI) — Siamese twins Dolce and Ruth Pantaleon died today at Texas Childrens Hospital. They were flown to Houston a few days after their birth March 3 in Bayamon, Puerto Rico.

Parents of the girls, Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Pantaleon, are Roman Catholics and objected to surgery if it would be fatal to either twin.

Doctors found that the twins shared a five-chambered heart and an operation would have sacrificed one life and possibly killed both. They were joined from the chest to the abdomen.

NEW CALIFORNIA LAWN FOOD

Grows greener, healthier grass

—that you fertilize in minutes!

We got the top agronomists in the State to come up with a formula for a lawn food to suit the climate, soils and overall growing conditions of California. They gave us their recommendations and we created the product: new ORTHO-GRO Lawn Food.

Then we went even further and produced the handiest, easiest way to spread fertilizer yet: the ORTHO WHIRLYBIRD Spreader! Together, the combination can't be beat. Examine the facts: ORTHO-GRO Lawn Food matches agronomist recommendations—item by item:

22% Nitrogen—greens up a lawn fast, keeps it green.
4% Phosphate—develops strong, healthy roots.
4% Potash—for vigorous growth, vitality.
2% Iron—forms chlorophyll, prevents yellowing.
5% Sulphur—resists lawn diseases, corrects alkaline soils.

FASTEST DISSOLVING FERTILIZER YET—NOT A PELLET WASTED

Sprinkle ORTHO-GRO pellets on a moistened blotter and watch them soak in. Other fertilizers don't go to work half so fast. They fail to permeate your lawn, could even wind up in your mower's grass-catcher before they ever got a chance to be effective. ORTHO-GRO dissolves immediately, speeds vital plant nutrients right to the roots.

EASY TO HANDLE, PROTECTED TO STAY FRESH ALL SEASON LONG

ORTHO-GRO is packaged neat and flat...stores away without sprawling all over. An inner polyethylene package keeps pellets fresh the year round.

Old way

WHIRLYBIRD way

IT'S ACTUALLY FUN: NEW WHIRLYBIRD SPREADER FEEDS YOUR LAWN IN MINUTES!

Just fill the hopper and turn the handle as you stroll across your lawn. WHIRLYBIRD spreads an 8- to 10-ft. swath as you go. Does away with pushing the old two-wheel spreader. With WHIRLYBIRD you follow the professional greenskeeper's example: fertilize light and often so you get steady uniform growth—no feast or famine.

WHIRLYBIRD covers 5,000 sq.ft. of lawn in ten to twelve minutes—even if you're a slow walker! Stores easily—takes up less space than a gallon of paint. Made of Chevron® Polypropylene—won't rust or corrode.

WHIRLYBIRD Fertilizer Spreader $5.95
ORTHO-GRO Lawn Food ..... 10,000 sq. ft. $7.95 ..... 5,000 sq. ft. $4.49 better matched to income."

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel urged that no matter which financing program is adopted, there should be property tax relief for the low-income elderly.

It is of prime importance that the elderly not "be rooted out of their homes by the sheer force of property taxes," he said.

Broemmel also contended there should be a balance among property taxes, sales taxes and income taxes.

Champion said Governor Brown considered three aspects of the tax problem: (1) meeting state revenue needs (2) reforming inequities in the tax structure; (3) reforming the property tax.

The governor's program includes an additional five-cent tax on cigarettes and a tax on other tobacco products, and a tax on property transfers ranging from one to two per cent, with exemption for the first $15,000 on dwelling. It includes "limited property tax reform to meet the worse problems," Champion said. These are relief to the low-income elderly property taxpayers, elimination of the household and personel effects tax, and reform of the business inventory tax.

Sullivan said the state tax structure has not been changed since 1935 and many facets have to be changed to bring relief to the property owner.

He distributed a mimeographed sheet reportedly showing the "impact of the Unruh-Petris Bill on Marin County, cities and school districts."

According to Sullivan's figures, Marin County would gain $682,898 if the bill passes.

Estimated gains for the cities, excluding Tiburon, were: Belvedere, $4,255; Corte Madera, $5,220; Fairfax, $3,679; Larkspur, $3,715; Mill Valley, $11,206; Novato, $7,639; Ross, $1,750; San Rafael, $36,682, and Sausalito, $16,451;

He estimated Dixie School District would get a tax rate cut of $1.25; Fairfax School District, 90 cents; Mill Valley, 75 cents; San Anselmo 85 cents; San Rafael Elementary, 35 cents, and Sausalito, five cents.

San Rafael High School District would get a nine-cent cut, Tamalpais High School District, 10 cents, and Novato Unified School District, $1.52, according to Sullivan.

These would result because the one per cent sales tax increase would be placed in the state school fund and distributed as equalization aid.

"Each school district will be required to drop its tax rate by an amount necessary to raise the sum of new money received from the state under this program," Sullivan said.

During a rebuttal period, Champion opposed the section of the Unruh-Petris bill which would eliminate the business inventory tax. He said it would give "a windfall" to industry "at the cost of doubling the income tax."

The discussion was sponsored by the Marin Democratic Assembly and co-sponsored by Democratic clubs of Belvedere-Tiburon, Gerater San Rafael and Ross Valley. Thomas A. Skornia, council chairman, was chairman, and Neil Abercrombie of Mill Valley, master of ceremonies.

Employment Sought For Marin Youth

Request for more representation of private employers on the Marin County Youth Employment Committee was made today at a meeting of Marin County and city officials.

The meeting was called by Col. Ralph M. Wanderer Jr., Hamilton Air Force Base commander and member of the federal executive board for youth employment in the San Francisco area.

The 40-member group heard a 25-minute tape recording of a recent speech by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey urging employers with 10 to 100 employees to hire at least one student this summer as a business trainee.

It was agreed that assistance of private employers is mandatory if employment for thousands of young people seeking jobs this summer is to be found.

Two Bulls Back In Pasture

Those uninvited guests at San Quentin Prison—two Angus bulls—were back in their pasture today on the old Brazil ranch not far from the prison.

The two were "paroled" to their owner, Frank Merz, yesterday after they spent the night at San Quentin. They turned up at the west gate Wednesday night and refused to move.

Merz said they apparently got through the ranch gate, wandered up the side of a hill and down the highway to the prison. "They're worth a lot more money, now that they've got a record," he joked.

Chicken Empire

ATHENS, Ga. (UPI) — Commercial broiler production in Georgia set another record last year. The University of Georgia extension service says producers turned out 373,880,000 birds. This marked the 14th consecutive year that Georgia has led the nation in broiler production.

Corte Madera Chief Gets Way On Fire Budget But Not Police

Frank J. Nelson came out better as Corte Madera fire chief at last night's budget meeting of the town council than he did as police chief.

As fire chief, Nelson persuaded the council to approve a $55,000 fire department budget for fiscal 1966, raising the allotment for a new fire truck from the $20,000 suggested by the council's police and fire committee to the $27,000 he had asked.

He also got a raise for that phase of his dual job, from $100 to $200 monthly.

Wearing his police chief hat, Nelson watched councilmen cut his requested $114,875 budget to $102,273 by deciding to hire one new officer instead of two officers and a clerk. He said he was not disturbed about the cuts, however.

Nelson told the council his police budget had been "one of the most difficult budgets I have had to prepare" because it will cover the period when police move to the new public safety building. He said this will require such basic decisions as whether to open the station 24 hours a day or gradually expand its hour.

The two extra patrolmen would have been used to expand the department's new "two-beat" system—now used on Friday, Saturday and Sunday—to seven days a week.

Having been promised one new man, Nelson said he will expand the system to five days weekly.

Councilmen also turned down Nelson's request to hire two paid firemen, which would have run the fire budget to $65,000. Councilman Charles F. Pendleton said he was responsible for the police and fire committee's removal of the two men from the budget. He said information from other cities shows that "the surest way to dilute the volunteer fire department effort is to hire paid firemen."

The extra $7,000 for the pumper was restored after lengthy debate between Mayor Edward W. Colthurst and Nelson over whether it would take that much to buy a truck for use on Christmas Tree Hill.

Colthurst said Nelson was "almost quoting a standard pumper" which he said would be too big to get through the hill's narrow streets. Nelson said he would have to buy the 750-gallon pumper "stripped" if he got only $20,000.

Councilmen finally agreed to restore the money on the understanding they could review specifications for the truck before its purchase.

In other phases of the police and fire department discussion, the council gave Nelson informal approval to:

1. Deputize Asst. Town Engineer Arthur Morrison, street workers and other city employees as volunteer firemen to cover a shortage of available firemen during the day.

2. Hire two teen-agers to bleed, grease, clean and paint fire hydrants for two months this summer, if he can do it with funds already in his budget.

After discussion on the police budget, Pendleton moved its approval, but withdrew his motion when Councilman William W. Collier asked that the fire budget also be discussed before a vote.

Formal action came later in a sequence of motions which proved confusing to at least one spectator.

Collier moved to restore the $7,000 for the fire truck, and this was seconded by Councilman Albert E. Kogler. Before there was any vote, however, Kogler returned to the subject of Nelson's salary as fire chief. He moved that it be increased and Pendleton seconded this, after insisting the raise applied only as long as Nelson holds the job.

Councilmen then passed the second motion 4-1, with Mayor Colthurst dissenting, and went on quickly to approve both the police and fire budgets, in another vote. Later discussion made it apparent that all, including Nelson, felt the $7,000 was back in the fire budget.

These budget changes, plus $200 voted for a new tape recorder for council meetings, reduced the tentative budget's unappropriated reserve to $7,000.

"This should not be less than $25,000," warned Colthurst. "Some adjustment will have to be made."

The council will meet at 7:30 p.m. June 9 to discuss the park and recreation budget and the town's share in the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation program.

Youth Lives Dog Picture

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Theater manager C. C. Murray said an old Rin Tin Tin movie was being shown in his movie house to an audience of mostly children.

The dog was suspected of killing a child and as a policeman leveled a gun at the animal the audience became silent.

A lanky youth broke the spell of quiet when he jumped from his seat and shouted:

"Don't shoot that dog."

Elderly Home 'Prisons' Hit

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State and private homes for the aged in California have been classified as "human junkyards" and "premorturaries" after a special legislative investigation.

The charges were made in a report by the Assembly Ways and Means Subcommittee on Institutions released yesterday.

Mrs. Lillian McCall of Berkeley, author of the report, said her inspection of the homes revealed prison-type conditions, discriminatory practices and an absence of qualified supervision.

Or Sisters, Either

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI) — Signs posted around Franklin Grade School here informed youngsters that admission to a benefit movie would be through donation of a "white elephant" gift. At the end of the list of suggested items, such as toy trucks, was this notation: "No little brothers."

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY
One group of Marinites, most of them women, has found a way of combining a hobby interest with healthful outdoor exercise. On the second Monday of each month, they take a field trip, observing and studying nature. And they travel by canoe. The story of these canoeist-nature lovers will be told in a feature story with photographs in tomorrow's issue of the Independent-Journal's weekend supplement, the Marin Magazine.
Where to live after retirement when the family home obviously has become too large for the couple now living alone? It is a problem that has been faced by many Marinites. Tomorrow's Marin Magazine tells you about the solution reached by one Marin couple. They chose the mobile home. And why they think they made a wise selectiton is told in detail in the picture story about Mr. and Mrs. James Nance.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Doors Of Old Blue Rock Inn Have Opened Again In Larkspur

The doors of the old Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur, opened again to customers last Tuesday after a closure of more than three months.

New owners John Weiland and Paul Marracq have managed to "let well enough alone" in some spots in their redecorating and keep to the same 1890 theme. Most work has been done in the kitchen and some dustcatchers have been removed elsewhere—particularly in the party room, now called the "Larkspur Room," where there are new lighting fixtures and a more interesting format.

Blue Rock aficionados from way back will be glad to hear that chef Louis Jackson, who worked there over 15 years has returned. He is one fixture who should never be removed.

Mid-day smorgasbord and a few a la carte items are being served for lunches Mondays through Fridays from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Dinners are on a seven-day a week schedule - from 5 to 10 p.m. weekdays and from 4 p.m. on Sundays.

Menu continues on the International theme, but has been cut back to those dishes which have enjoyed popularity here. Yes, of course steaks are included in that category.

Weiland is in charge, while his partner officiates at their San Francisco spot, the Pine Tree Restaurant on California Street. John acts as the Blue Rock maitre d', and at times you may find him behind the bar.

These two are trying to preserve all that was good at the Blue Rock and eliminate the objectionable features. Diners throughout the county should hope for their success.

ANOTHER PLACE to open this week was the Hofbrau at 4200 Redwood Highway, San Rafael. That's across from Terra Linda, where Brummark's restaurant used to be.

This is the new operation of Don McLaughlin and Peggy de Mars, who have given up their Purple Pup across the highway farther south for something much better. They have been working furiously to get it open — and this writer had the experience of telling them their application for a wine and beer license had been approved. They hadn't even taken time off to open the mail. Ted Duro who redecorated the Hill Top for Peg and Don some time back is responsible for many of the trimmings at the Hofbrau.

The restaurant will be open from 6:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily except Sundays when the breakfast hour will start a little later. Hofbrau fare will be served at lunchtime to 2 p.m. Dinners will include barbecued chicken, spareribs, short ribs and charbroiled steaks. If you remember what Don and Peggy used to serve at the old Red Fox in San Rafael - that is it.

IF AN EPICURE looks around long enough he will usually discover at least one place in the area where dinner is something of a production - not to be classed as an everyday meal, but in the category of a "hit" theater presentation.

It will be done with the finesse that can only be accomplished under a fine director, who may also or may not be one of the performers, but his fine hand is always evident. The script must be well authorized; the performance itself denote many hours of painstaking rehearsal and previous training. And if the theater in which all this is presented is also pleasing and attractive in its own right - then the perfect finishing touch has been achieved.

In Marin, I like to think that one such place is Ondine, Sausalito.

But at Ondine there is at least one feature which distinguishes it from a theater - each time you visit here you have something to say about the program. If you want to encore a previous pleasing performance you don't have to call back the last cast.

Depending upon how far you get carried away in making a choice, I'm not saying that your enthusiasm isn't likely to cost you something - particularly if you start naming items which require advance preparation and more than a reasonable amount of individual attention. But in cases like this it's only right you should be prepared to pay for your fun. For instance, I don't know what you'd be charged for one of Alfred Roblin's new creations—a souffle known as "fruits de mer." It isn't on the menu and it might even take an act of the French Parliament to get him to prepare one.

But you'll come out quite nicely if you can be happy with chicken Patricia or Diane or veal gentilhomme. And if you're lucky enough to have maitre d' Gilbert Barthe prepare his special crepes Suzette "a la Gilbert," your cup of satisfaction will surely runneth over.

The Bear Republic flag should wave over Ondine next Sunday when the California State Chamber of Commerce acts as host for an "all California dinner" to be served to some out of town notables. They should be impressed mightily. I've seen the menu, which includes Mendocino coast abalone (some of these visitors will never have tasted abalone), San Francisco Bay shrimps, a bouillabaisse of California fresh seafoods, a Golden State salad, Paso Robles ranchero meat cuts and many other tidbits from this state's sumptuous food basket.

EVEN TO THE WINE LIST—the Chamber is insisting on two of our choicest California red and white vintages at this dinner.

Which reminds me that enophile Philip Harding notes there has been a cellar of American wines in the White House since 1957, and three presidents have been pouring both American and foreign wines. And since last winter, State Department officials abroad have been asked to serve American. Most of these wines, of course, are from California, says Harding. This state produces four out of every five bottles with U.S. grown contents.

I'VE HEARD of many things attributed to daylight saving time — but a 10 per cent discount is something new. However, that's what Ed Leong is calling his current dinner cut at Confucius these days—even if you get there after the sun goes down your check will be marked down.

On the other hand, if you come in between 4 and 7 p.m. that's when the cocktail lounge's "Happy Hour" is in progress—double sized cocktails. At the regular price.

The Confucius dining room now closes at 10 p.m. Sundays through Wednesdays. Thursdays through Saturdays it's open until 1 a.m.

QUICK RECOVERY WISHES to Phyllis Mendoza, owner of Casa Linda Restaurant in San Rafael, who is in the Kaiser Foundation Hospital, San Francisco, as a result of a bad automobile accident. "Maybe I should stay here a while—the restaurant seems to be doing better without me," she said . . . And to Don Lynam, executive chef and partner in the Spinnaker Restaurant, Sausalito. As you may have noticed in the news, Don was hurt when an airplane he was piloting near McKenzie River, Ore., crashed. One thing, though—he managed to land on his feet, even though he did splinter an ankle.

Meeting Postponed

A special meting of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission, which had been set for 8 p.m. today to discuss the registration of recreation director Robert C. Bundy, has been postponed. Bundy said the meeting would be held early next week, but that the day had not been set.

Ensign Assigned

Ensign Michael A. Klapak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Klapak of San Anselmo, will serve as assistant supply officer on Bainbridge, a nuclear powered destroyer frigate berthed at Charleeton, S. C. Ensign Klapak recently was graduated from the Navy Supply Corps School in Georgia.

Liquor License Appeal Is Expected By State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state expects the owners of the La Mesa Bowl — involved in a case that ended in the resignation of three state officials — to appeal a decision that cost them their liquor license.

The Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control yesterday reaffirmed its revocation of the San Diego area establishment's license.

Owners Frank and Joseph Matranga were accused of using subterfuge to get the license. Unless they appeal, their license will be revoked June 14.

But even if they appeal, the Matrangas' license would be suspended for 30 days beginning June 17, on a separate charge of failing to give the state required information.

The bowling alley was the site of a dinner party attended by Alcoholic Beverage Control Board members Robert H. Haden and Arthur Belcher — and hosted, according to Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch — by the Matrangas.

The current case was pending before the department at the time. And an appeal would be made to the board.

Haden and Belcher, however, are no longer on the board, having resigned after Lynch said they used poor judgment in accepting the dinner invitation. Another dinner guest, State Athletic Commissioner Dominic Tavaglione, also quit.

Freshman Dance

"Freshman a Go-Go" is the theme of the last dance of Redwood High School's freshman class, which will be staged in the girls' gymnasium on June 12 from 8 to 10 p.m. for freshmen only.

Fairfax Teen Dance

Last teen dance of the Fairfax spring recreation program will be held from 8 to 11 p.m. June 12 at the Fairfax Pavilion, according to recreation director Nyal D. Worsham.

The length of the United States-Canadian border, excluding Alaska, is 3,987 miles.

Hamburger and CHAMPAGNE?

Well, not for everybody.

You have to be 21 and come over to Sam's in Tiburon to get it.

And, if you find fulfillment in the works of Edgar Guest, Paul Harvey, Daddy Warbucks, Jane Addams, Norman Rockwell, and Henry Doelger... you might prefer to stick with Sam's tried and true Burger & Beer.

But if a spark of the bon vivant burns in your soul, your taste will be abundantly rewarded with this bizarre combination.

Sam's Anchor Cafe has even bottled its own champagne for the occasion.

That would be Sam's in Tiburon.

Attitude Survey Report Approved

Directors of the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce last night approved the final draft of a report on results of a community attitude survey, and authorized it to be presented to the city council.

Junior chamber member Everett Stites said he hopes to give the report at the council's June 21 meeting.

The first operation under ether was performed in 1842 by Dr. Crawford W. Long, in Jefferson, Ga.

Annual Show Nets Profit For Tam Club

There's no business like show business as far as the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club is concerned.

At least this was true in a report to the club last night by director Midge Hamburg, who said the club netted $3,200 on its 11th annual "Rhubarb Revue."

Mrs. Hamburg said that in five performances given over three weekends at the Mill Valley American Legion Hall, only 137 out of 1,500 seats went unsold. The $3,200 compares with $123 net profit from the first musical show given in 1955. Commended highly for her work in handling ticket sales was Mrs. Flo Glessner.

The club members were shown a proposed master plan of the 10-acre site which the club has an option to buy in Tennessee Valley. Members discussed the proposed contract and agreed to hold a picnic on July 4 on the property.

Bank Fee Split Held In 'Phantom Report'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., said today "a phantom report" on the Bobby Baker case concludes it is fair to assume the former Senate aide split a $5,000 fee with a lobbyist friend.

Williams referred to a $5,000 check sent to Wayne Bromley after the Redwood National Bank in San Rafael, Calif., obtained a national bank charter in 1962.

(Bromley was engaged by organizers of the bank to serve as attorney in Washington. The $5,000 was paid him by Roderick P. Martinelli, then the bank's attorney in San Rafael. Martinelli said directors of the bank refused to reimburse him for the outlay.)

Bromley, a coal industry lobbyist who used to work under Baker in the Senate, invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to answer questions about the payment when called before the Senate Rules Committee Dec. 8.

Baker, who resigned under fire on Oct. 7, 1963 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, also invoked the Fifth Amendment protection against possible self-incrimination when he was questioned by the committee.

The committee conducted a stormy investigation of how Baker built up a claimed fortune of over $2 million while on the Senate payroll at $19,600 a year.

Williams protested anew that a draft report on the investigation had been leaked to the press. He said it implied that "I didn't play straight with the committee, or had lied to it."

He called it a phantom report because, he said, none of the committee's Democratic majority has accepted responsibility for the draft.

The committee held public hearings on the payment to Bromley only after Williams had initiated a reopening of its probe last fall. However, Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., said staff investigators had previously questioned Bromley and the committee had turned the $5,000 check dated March 4, 1963, over to the Internal Revenue Service.

Williams said records showed that Baker made a number of telephone calls to San Rafael in February and early March, 1963, at the expense of the taxpayers, and he contended the committee had ample evidence to go into the case before it first closed its probe.

Citizens Give Over $9,000 To Bond Campaign

There has been $9,100 contributed by Marin citizens to date to finance the campaign for the Tuesday bond issue for the hall of justice addition on the Civic Center.

Publicist Tom Page of Mill Valley, who is running the campaign, said the contributions have ranged from $1 to $1,000 from a total of 146 contributors. He said he expects an addition $500 to $1,000 will come in before the campaign is over.

Page, originally hired at a fee of $3,000 by te Committee to Complete the Civic Center, said he likely will not receive the full fee. "This is a labor of love with me," Page said.

He emphasized there is no county money in the campaign.

Church Dialogue Open To Public

An "Evening of Ecumenism" dialogue between leading Protestant and Catholic theologians at 8 p.m. today in St. Raphael's school auditorium, San Rafael, will be open to all Marin County residents according to Rev. Thomas I. Kennedy, administrator of the host parish.

Dr. Robert McAfee Brown, Stanford University professor of religion, and Rev. Frank Norris of St. Patrick's Seminary will present the dialogue and answer audience questions. Both have attended Vatican Council sessions in Rome.

Marin Scientists Get Ocean Mining Grant

The Atomic Energy Commission has granted $100,000 so scientists at the old Tiburon Net Depot can study, invent and construct nuclear devices for use in hunting for minerals on the ocean floor and beneath it.

The fund during the next fiscal year will come from the Division of Isotopes Development of the AEC.

Scientists in the marine mineral technology center at the depot, under the U. S. Bureau of Mines, are so sure they will get the appropriation they already have begun drawing up specifications for a nuclear powered "beacon" which could be used by undersea miners to mark their position in the ocean. The beacon would send a radio isotope-powered signal to be picked up by a type of Geiger counter, or have a radio signal powered by nuclear energy to mark a likely mining spot.

Funds from the AEC will allow hiring four more physicists, who are also expected to have knowledge of the working side of the machinery they will be helping to invent.

Harold D. Hess of Terra Linda, scientific project chairman for the center, said neutron activation analysis, gamma backscatter and gamma attenuation techniques which scientists will explore could allow miners to find the type, quantity and quality of ocean floor minerals within hours of their discovery.

Machines would be dragged by cable just above the sea floor, reporting their findings to the ship above.

The findings would be radioed to computers on shore, which in hours could come up with information on whether a mineral find was worth further investigation.

John E. Crawford of Terra Linda, head of the entire center, reported that his requests for additional government funds for next fiscal year have been approved by Congress.

It will mean that the center will get $232,000 from the government (up from the $132,000) plus the $100,000 from the Atomic Energy Commission.

In addition, Lockheed Missile and Space Co. of Sunnyvale and International Mineral and Chemical Corp. of Skokie, Ill., have contributed toward the projects, in return for joining in the work.

Crawford declined to state the exact amount each company contributes, but said that the basic bargaining figure is $50,000 for a company to join the consortium. Two or three more companies are expected to join in coming months, he said.

The center recently signed a contract with Tracer Lab Inc. of Richmond, a company producing nuclear instruments and working with radio isotopes, to provide instruments for center research.

Fire Board Orders Drop In Tax Rate

A tax rate decrease of seven cents was ordered last night by directors of the Tiburon Fire District, but they also indicated the possibility of a bond election to finance water line construction.

Directors approved a budget of $136,375, up from the present one of $103,483. They promised to hold the tax rate to 59 cents per $100 assessed valuation even if it were to mean reducing the $40,000 budgeted for reserves.

Directors James P. Jenkins and Kelly J. Wheeler were appointed as a committee to check the mechanics of a bond election which might finance water line construction in the area from Main Street through Lyford Cove.

Directors agreed that the $144,500 cost of putting larger water mains in the area was too great to be done at one time unless a bond issue is floated.

The budget consists of $58,468 for salaries; $14,150, maintenance and operation; $23,757, capital outlay; $40,000 reserves.

Two Are Booked In Theft Probe

Two Stinson Beach residents were booked in county jail late yesterday for investigation of receiving stolen merchandise taken in a late February burglary of the home of Marie Danielson on Calle Del Pinos in Stinson Beach.

Held in lieu of $3,300 bail each were Sarah Ellen McFarland, 32, and Carlos Fredric Smart, 34, a pianist. Sheriff's Inspector A. V. Menjou said he arrested them at home after Marie Danielson reported seeing part of her stolen loot in Smart's house.

The Danielson home was entered via sliding doors. Over $500 in clothing and a camera were taken, Menjou said. The camera and most of the clothing have been recovered.

Keys Left In Car Is Still No Crime

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly today voted 32-14 against a bill that would have made it a crime for a motorist to leave his car keys in the ignition.

The measure by Assemblyman George Deukmejian, R-Long Beach, would have made it a misdemeanor to leave keys in an unattended car.

Reed Principal To Take Over Two Schools

John Fitch, principal of Bel Aire School in Reed School District, last night was given the additional job of principal of Granada School.

Trustees, meeting in special session at Del Mar School, agreed that Fitch would head both schools. Still to be decided is whether an additional administrative assistant or additional clerical help for principals will be hired, Supt. Edward C. Pino reported.

The Granada post became vacant with resignation of Paul Coste, who will become superintendent-principal of the American School of Paris.

Fitch has been the Reed District for seven years as principal of Bel Aire. He acts as superintendent of the district when Pino is away.

Sausalito Meeting

Sausalito Citizens Council directors will meet at 8 p.m. next Thursday at the home of A. Slikkerveer, 167 Woodward Avenue. There was no meeting last night because one director was unable to appear, Raymond G. Gergus, board president, reported.

Compromise Pay Proposal Is Labeled A Disaster

A "compromise" proposal to give College of Marin teachers a five per cent pay raise with hope of more in October was called "horrible," "deplorable" and "a disaster" last night by Robert Becklund, head of the Teachers' Assn.

"This doesn't represent a compromise," he told Marin Junior College District trustees. "It's a collapse."

A board committee of trustees Robert E. Rogers and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy made the pay proposals although Mrs. Deedy said she was not sure revenue would cover even five per cent.

Becklund recalled figures that the College of Marin this year ranked 12th of 14 bay area junior colleges in teacher pay. The teachers had asked a 13 per cent raise.

College President Stephen E. Epler showed figures for all 54 junior college districts in the state, with Marin about in the middle in pay scale.

The board proposal included health insurance coverage, adding the equivalent of another per cent pay increase, and was estimated to cost $96,000 next fiscal year.

Minimum pay would be $6,300 per year, and top pay would be $11,781 with a master's degree or $12,253 with a doctorate.

Becklund said the teachers were pleased with a suggestion that department and division chairmanships be rotated. These posts carry premium pay but also extra duties.

Becklund accepted a challenge by Mrs. Deedy to come back with specific recommentations where cuts could be made in the budget for more pay for teachers. He indicated one place to cut would be in reserve funds..

"That money is supposed to be for a rainy day," he said. "We're in a deluge now."

Collision Breaks Cyclist's Leg

A 13-year-old bicyclist suffered a broken leg yesterday afternoon when he collided with a car on Seventh Avenue near Novato Creek in Novato.

Wade Allen Gomes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gomes of 1049 Eigth Street, Novato, was reported in good condition today at Novato General Hospital.

Police reported the boy was riding on the wrong side of the street when he was knocked off his bike by a car driven by Donald Watson Murray, 54, of 1669 Center Road, Novato, shortly after 3 p.m.

Marines End Dominican Peace Job

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The U.S. Marines said goodby to Santo Domingo today as President Johnson ordered the rest of them out.

Helicopters were airlifting the 2,100 leathernecks to the carrier Boxer offshore.

There was no indication whether the carrier and her escort would sail for other waters once the Marines were aboard.

Johnson announced in Chicago last night that Brazilian Gen. Hugo Panasco Alvim, commander of the Inter-American Force in the Dominican Republic, had advised him "that conditions in the Dominican Republic now permit further reduction of our military personnel."

Departure of the Marines leaves 14,200 U.S. paratroopers serving with 1,500 Latin-American troops in the Inter-American Force.

Peace negotiators of the Organization of American States continued talks with rebel and junta leaders.

Officers Trap Fleeing Car With Burglary Suspects

San Rafael and Novato police and a Marin County sheriff's deputy made a 100-mile-an-hour "box stop" on Highway 37 shortly before 5 a.m. today to trap a fleeing car containing two teen-age burglary suspects and a two-and-one-half months old baby.

One San Rafael patrol car was damaged, but there were no injuries in the wild chase, reported Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa.

A 16-year-old Vallejo youth was booked into juvenile hall on charges of burglary, conspiracy, resisting arrest and reckless driving. His 15-year-old sister, also of Vallejo, was taken to the hall on charges of burglary and conspiracy. Her infant son was taken to Marin General Hospital for care, after police found him in the getaway car.

The chase started at 4:20 a.m. when San Rafael Patrolman Donald A. Merkley was making a door-check of medical offices at 712 D Street. The teen-agers, loaded down with office machines, ran from behind the building to a 1964 green Ford parked nearby, and roared toward Highway 101. Merkley radioed an alert.

Officer John F. Riordan, watching at Third and Irwin streets, saw the fugitive car run a stoplight at Fifth and Irwin and gave chase. Officer Donald M. Rose stationed his car on Highway 101 at Terra Linda, and picked up the pursuit, which led onto the Sears Point Cutoff. Sheriff's Deputy John Goff and Novato Officer William Cann joined the chase.

On Highway 37, Deputy Goff pulled in front of the suspects' car, and Riordan and Rose beside it as the young driver slowed to 50 miles and finally braked suddenly.

In the fast stop, Novato Officer Cann's car broadslid into one San Rafael car.

Meanwhile, Officer Markley, attempting to catch up, narrowly escaped serious trouble when a left rear tire on his car blew out at 110 miles an hour. He was able to stop safely.

Police said the 16-year-old admitted entering the offices of Doctors Carroll A. Russell and William L. Clark with a passkey.

Walker Is Taken From Bridge Lanes

Darrel R. Radel, 23, of San Francisco, was taken to San Francisco General Hospital at 1 a.m. today when highway patrolmen found him walking down the Golden Gate Bridge traffic lanes.

Patrolmen earlier had warned him that the bridge was closed to walkers at that hour as Radel parked his car on the San Francisco side and headed for the pedestrian lane.

Divorce Trial Fee $80,000 For Lawyers

Question of who should pick up how much of an $80,000 tab for lawyer and special investigator fees in the much-contested Preston Jones divorce trial was before Judge Samuel W. Gardiner in Marin Superior Court yesterday.

W. O. Weissich, one of Janet Jones's attorneys, testified legal fees alone for the plaintiff, who has charged her millionaire San Leandro husband with mental cruelty, amount to $55,000.

In addition, he said, 21,623 was spent for investigation seeking evidence of adultry by Jones and whereabouts of suspected hidden financial assets.

Weissich said Mrs. Jones of 16 Marina Way in San Rafael, also had to pay $2,300 in income tax which her husband normally paid. He said Janet has no funds.

Under sharp and sometimes seemingly unbelieving questioning by Oakland attorney Franklin Stark, representing Jones, Weissich testified the "minimum going rate" for attorneys in Marin County is $250 daily in court, and $35 an hour outside of court.

He said a private detective Charles Young of Castro Valley, participated in the alleged adultery and hidden asset investigation.

Weissich admitted that Young's wife—using an alias was encouraged to accept an alleged invitation by Jones to spend an evening in an East Bay motel. He said, however, that the encouragement came only after Jones made the initial proposal, and the rendezvous was to halt before anything serious happened.

Stark commented that Weissich and his client must have been very frustrated in their failure to compile adultery evidence.

Weissich replied he wasn't frustrated, but was instead surprised at how "discreet" Jones was in his post-separation behavior. He said need for investigators became evident after hearing reports that the Prescolite factories—of which Jones is half owner—were practically houses of ill repute, and that "beautiful babes" abounded on the premises.

Judge Gardiner continued the hearing until Wednesday.

Management, Labor Group Starts Drive

Nearly 300 representatives of labor, management and building trades met in San Rafael last night to launch a campaign for better liaison with public agencies to plan for Marin's growth.

The Labor, Management, Construction Industry Council of Marin held its kickoff dinner at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant.

Co-chairmen Douglas Roberts, manager of Marin Builders Exchange, and George R. Scott, president of Marin Building and Construction Trades Council, announced the newly formed group will hold informal meetings about once a month.

Special committees will be formed to keep in touch with city councils, planning commissions and the Marin County Board of Supervisors so the construction industry can offer its services and present its views.

Roberts outlined some of the purposes of the new organization as follows:

Encourage planning and orderly development, establish uniform building codes and business license tax, improve industry public relations, and encourage construction work by private industry rather than by public agencies.

"Marin's population may double in 10 years," said Roberts. "Our aim is to plan for that expansion development, along with preservation of beauty.

Anthony Ramos, executive secretary of the State Council of Carpenters, pointed out that the construction industry plays a key role in every phase of human advancement.

J. D. Mack, executive manager of the Plumbing, Heating and Cooling Contractors of California, lauded Marin's efforts for labor-management cooperation.

"I think you're starting something here in Marin that will spread throughout the state," declared Mack. He added that both management and labor must proceed on the premise: "United we stand."

Peter H. Behr, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, emphasized the need for good planning. "No man is an island unto himself," said Behr. "And no single piece of property is an island unto itself . . . Louse up your planning and you louse up the future of the contractors and the craftsmen."

Classes To Close At Marshall School

The district does not now have a kindergarten.

He said residents of Marshall would surely be able to continue to use the building for civic activities.

Reason for closing classes next school year was explained several times by trustees and principal David Raffo.

There would be only 13 pupils in the first through fifth grade at Marshall. Trustees think this to few, particularly in light of the district effort to establish a one teacher-one grade program.

Trustee Merle E. Lawson of Dillon Beach moved to close the classes.

This was seconded by Mrs. Parks.

Trustee A. L. Cunninghame Jr. of Fallon offered an amendment to the effect that the school would stay open if parents would be willing to have their children, now attending upper grades at Tomales, return to Marshall to boost the enrollment to about 20. No parent spoke in favor of this and no one seconded Cunninghame's motion.

After the vote to close the school, trustees adopted a tentative budget of $100,223 for fiscal 1966, well over the current budget of $79,114.

However, due to reserve carry-over and increased assessed value of the district, Raffo said the general purpose tax rate would drop from the current $1.30 to $1.25 per $100 assessed valuation. In addition the district this year levied 6.5 cents in over-ride taxes.

Raffo's budget proposals include hiring of an additional seventh teacher at $5,900 a year, salary increases which will add $5,000 to the payroll, rental of a portable classroom for Tomales, and a $1,300 contribution from the district toward a National Defense Education Act English program.

The additional teacher, Mrs. Genevieve Elaine Miller, was hired by the board last night.

With closing of Marshall classes and addition of the seventh teacher, second and third grades will be the only ones combined at Tomales. Departmental instruction will be possible in sixth, seventh and eighth grades, Raffo said.

This improved program was the board's biggest argument against those who wished to retain the Marshall operation.

Hal Evans argued that, once closed, the school would never open again, despite the promise of growth in the Marshall area. Trustees argued that it could be opened again, particularly with the plan to keep maintaining it.

Evans, who spoke for the Marshall Community Club, urged that two more teachers be hired and one of them serve at Marshall. Trustees said this was not economically feasible.

Evans and the board agreed that the Marshall school site was not large enough if extensive growth should come.

Mrs. William Strauss of Blake's Landing said she felt a little like a "traitor" but had to override her sentiments in favor of the program for improved education.

Mrs. Selma Maggetti, who aught at Marshall for 20 years prior to her retirement three years ago, said she was also sentimental about the school but found it difficult to oppose the board's proposal.

Novato Chamber Re-Elects Nave

Richard P. Nave was re-elected president of the Novato Chamber of Commerce yesterday at a meeting of the board of directors.

Ross Tankersley was elected first vice president, and Hy Silver, second vice president. Glen Tovani was elected treasurer.

The slate of officers presented to the board by the nominating committee was elected unanimously when there were no nominations from the floor.

Officers and board members will be installed at a dinner meeting of the chamber at 7:30 p.m. July 31 at the Lodge restaurant.

Corte Madera Approves Employees' Life Insurance

The Corte Madera Town Council voted 3-2 last night to pay for a $5,000 life insurance policy for each town employee, but refused even to vote on a request to double the salary increase earlier discussed.

Councilman William W. Collier urged that the council set up some procedure to give clearer guidelines for future salary hikes, but the idea aroused little enthusiasm from his colleagues.

The life insurance plan was approved after a long discussion with Police Officer Charles H. Rester, president of the Corte Madera Employees Assn.

Voting against the $5,000 policy were Councilman Norman R. Barnett and Mayor Edward W. Colthurst, who said he felt a $1,000 policy was the most a city should provide.

Most of Rester's comments centered on his request that the city grant a five per cent blanket salary increase instead of the two and one-half per cent hike councilmen talked of in April.

Stressing the difficulty of finding a proper comparison on which to base salary raises, Rester said he had made a study of private industry's wages as well as other cities, including San Francisco. Councilmen complained that it was not fair to compare Corte Madera with either of these.

No vote was needed, since each councilman said he was opposed to a further salary hike in the 1966 budget.

Collier agreed with Rester that it was hard to find a proper basis for salary comparisons. Mayor Colthurst pointed to a thick book compiled by the League of California Cities, listing all city salaries in the state, and said, "We go by books like this."

"Even reading this," retorted Collier, "I really don't know what I am reading—and I doubt very seriously that the rest of you guys did either."

"We do all right," said Colthurst.

Collier said the employees should get together with the city's next town manager, as soon as one is hired, and work on guidelines for salaries a year hence.

Colthurst objected, however, saying he did not feel a new manager would be able to grasp the personnel situation in Corte Madera soon enough to take part in such a study.

Cases Of TB 18 For Year

Tuberculosis struck four more Marinites during May, the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn. reported today.

Case total for the year is now 18. The number of known cases in the county is 253.

Three of the last month's cases were reported to the health department for the first time. One was a reactivation of dormant disease. All infected persons were women.

So far this year tuberculosis has been found in seven residents of Mill Valley, including a 22-month-old child. Mill Valley had the most TB last year also.

No Razor On Spacecraft

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Space pioneers Edward H. White II and James A. McDivitt could come back from their four-day space journey looking like a pair of Western pioneers.

There are no razors aboard the Gemini 4, and when the two spacemen splash down in the Atlantic Ocean Monday they may have a bad case of five o'clock shadow.

"Hair is no problem," Dr. W. W. Kemmerer Jr., head of the Manned Spacecraft Center's microbiology division said. "We can't see the added weight a razor would place on the spacecraft."

To keep hands and face clean, small wet tabs placed in special plastic containers are available for use after each meal.

College Receives New Proposals For Outside-Group Campus Use

Marin Junior College District trustees last night received a proposed set of new rules for use of college facilities by outside groups, proposing a three-man committee to act on waiver of fees for charitable groups.

Physical education chairman Harry Pieper was told he had better warn groups wishing to use the football field in 1966 that there probably will not be a field, at least for night games.

The college may have to use the area for parking, Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy said, and football games may be played on a "minimal" unlighted field near the new physical education complex.

Trustee Kent O. Seymour said he would be reluctant to use the football field for parking. He said lights were installed there partly to save taxpayers the cost of putting lights on high school fields.

Mrs. Deedy said one high school field was to be lighted next fall anyway. Trustee Joseph D. Gargiulo, who is Novato High School vice principal, said the trend in high schools is to play football in the afternoon.

The board agreed to allow the Ross Valley Kiwanis Club to sponsor the north-south all-star football game on the field next Aug. 26 and to permit the Pop Warner football festival Sept. 11, but made no decision about waiving fees for them.

Decision on use of the gymnasium by the Marin Symphony was held up to find out if the building would be needed for rehearsal before performances.

The new rules included a revised list of fees, aimed at insuring that all clean-up work after events will either be done by the users or paid for by them.

Dean Roy Mikalson reported the college's concert and lectures series this school year drew far lighter attendance than hoped. He said someone was needed to coordinate publicity.

John H. Myers, music department head, said average attendance at the department's own concerts has been much higher, students and instructors doing most of their own publicity. He said the average audience has been about 400.

Board Chairman Robert E. Oliver said it may be possible that "quality and popularity don't mix."

"Sometimes when we have had the very best publicity, we have had the smallest crowds," said Mikalson.

Board members complained because commencement exercises this year will be held in the gymnasium instead of the lawn as in the past.

Mrs. Deedy said the gym bleachers, where family members would sit, were not suitable for elderly or infirm people.

Gargiulo complained the previous exercises, with a spectacular view of Mount Tamalpais in the background, were being changed to "an ordinary graduation."

The Marin Junior College District Board Also:

1. Deferred for one week a review of plans to expand parking for students.

2. Received a report on the transfer students to four-year colleges, showing that generally the college is preparing students well. Mrs. Deedy asked that specific complaints by students be referred to appropriate departments and teachers.

3. Received a report showing the number of students per teacher was comparable to other Bay Area colleges, although there seemed to be discrepancies on how other colleges arrived at some figures.

4. Accepted with regret the resignation of Claire K. Mitchell, secretary to the president, and hired Genece Brady to succeed her, at $460 a month; also hired Mary P. Neecke as secretary to the director of planning and research at $375, and Mrs. Linda I. Sumbardo as library clerk at $325.

Two Arrested In Stolen Car

Two men riding in a stolen car were arrested yesterday by Novato police on a charge of car theft.

Arrested were the driver, Daniel J. Ryan, 18, of 2379 Dominic Drive, Novato, and seaman apprentice Merton Wesley Spaulding, 20, who, police said, was absent without leave from Treasure Island.

Officers Raymond R. Courier and Richard Gibson sighted the car, reported stolen Tuesday by Sydney J. Smith of 794 Storybook Court, Novato, and arrested its occupants in the 500 block of Sunset Parkway.

United Bay Area Crusade Discussed

Directors of Marin United Fund and Marin Council of Community Services held a joint session yesterday to learn the progress of the current citizens' committee to appraise and recommend improvements of the United Bay Area Crusade.

No action resulted at the meeting, according to Francis Fogarty of the Marin United Fund.

Daylight Time Proposal Gains

WASHINGTON (AP) — If the House goes along with the Senate, all areas of the nation which use Daylight Saving Time will be required to start it and end it on the same days each year.

The bill which won voice-vote Senate passage yesterday designates 2 a.m. on the last Sunday in April for the start of DST and 2 a.m. on the last Sunday in October to end it.

But it would not require any area to adopt the fast-time schedule, and it carries no penalties for areas which fail to adhere to the effective dates.

170 cubic feet of station wagon.
170 cubic feet of station wagon.
This picture may look a little odd.
But so are most conventional station wagons when you consider how little they hold.
The two above average about 85 cubic feet each. The Volkswagen holds twice that: 170.
And even if you did put two conventional wagons together you still couldn't carry the kind of things you can in a Volkswagen.
The VW has a 14-square-foot sunroof for sticking tall things out of.
And five big doors to stick things into. (The two loading doors on the side are 14 square feet.)
On the inside, the VW has seats for 9 people and room for 28 cubic feet of luggage.
But on the outside, it's only a scant 9 inches longer than the VW Sedan.
You can park it like a sports car.
And everywhere you go, the Volkswagen engine is right behind you getting 20 miles a gallon.
When you think about it, the VW Station Wagon not only holds a pile it can also save you one.

Today is Friday, June 4, the 155th day of 1965 with 210 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning star is Saturn. The evening star is Mars.

Robert Merrill, American baritone of the Metropolitan Opera, was born on this day in 1919.

On this day in history:

In 1860, the finishing touches were put on the White House.

In 1896, Henry Ford wheeled his first car from a brick shed in Detroit and drove it around the darkened city streets on a trial run.

In 1942, the Battle of Midway began and the Japanese fleet suffered its first decisive defeat of World War II by the United States.

In 1944, U. S. and British soldiers occupied Rome, the first Axis capital to fall to the Allies.

A thought for the day — American actress and author Cornelia Otis Skinner said: "Woman's virtue is man's greatest invention."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

Always Pave The Way For Defensive Error At Bridge

Never assume that your opponents are going to make the "obvious" correct play.

What they will do on paper is often quite different from what they do when the cards are in their hands—even in an all-expert game.

West opened the ace of hearts, tried the ace of diamonds next, and then made the ghastly play of trying to cash the ace of clubs.

SOUTH RUFFS

South ruffed the ace of clubs. That's all anybody at the table saw since East was too busy sneering at his partner to notice that South ruffed with the six of spades.

We can afford to notice that the South player was Boris Koytchou, for many years a member of the French bridge team and now one of the leading American players.

When the noise died down a bit, Koytchou led the nine of hearts to ruff in dummy, discarded the jack of diamonds on the king of clubs, and led dummy's five of spades.

EAST'S TURN

It was East's turn to blunder. It was "obvious" that he should play the eight of spades to make South win the trick in his own hand.

But East followed tamely with the three of spades, assuming that South was going to play a higher spade from his hand anyway.

South knew better. West's cue-bid of two spades indicated a void in spades, and the rest of the bidding confirmed this.

SIX OF SPADES

Koytchou had ruffed with the six of spades precisely for this reason: he could play the deuce now under dummy's five.

Dummy's five of spades won the trick, and declarer could lead the 10 of spades from dummy next.

East could get only one trump trick, and the redoubled contract came home.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds.

Avoid a jump bid when you are void of partner's suit unless you have a strong suit of your own. You would jump to three diamonds if partner opened with oen heart instead of one spade.

Lagunitas Is Asking Hike In School Tax

Lagunitas School District — faced with the threat of double sessions next fall—will ask voters on Tuesday to add 20 cents for the next two years to the general operating tax rate, making it $2.85 per $100 assessed valuation.

With the additional funds, trustees plan to lease temporaray classrooms and restore the multipurpose room to its intended general use.

The general purpose operating tax rate, while the only rate which cannot be increased without voter approval, is not the total tax imposed by a school district. "Over-rides" for various purposes are additional, as is payment of bonded indebtedness. This year Lagunitas School District levied a total rate of $3.34 per $100 assessed valuation.

Should it pass, $8,000 per year will be added to the district's revenues, with which three temporary classrooms will be leased.

Failure of the increase will mean double sessions for at least two classes in the fall, according to Lagunitas Supt. Marshall McCunniff. Classes will also continue to be held in the multipurpose room, cancelling its general use by the school and community. Two grades have held classes in the multipurpose room this year.

The election has been consolidated with the county election on a $7,750,000 Civic Center bond issue, so will use the same polling places. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

It will be the fifth Lagunitas District school tax election since 1963 and the second this year. Three months ago, in March, voters approved indefinite continuance of the present $2.65 general operating rate, then about to expire. It was approved for one year in April, 1964.

The 20-cent increase is not the highest requested or approved in recent years. In July, 1963, a 65-cent jump from the existing $2 rate was authorized by voters, four-months after they turned down a $1.05 requested increase.

Two Arrested In Burglary Case

Two men were arrested yesterday by Belvedere police and charged with burglary of the Belvedere mansion formerly owned by Stewart Hopps. Police said they took a parasol, an outdoor umbrella, a shrub, hammer and garden statue.

Michel A. Napolitano, 28 of Walnut Creek, and Louis Cusimano, 32, of Alamo, Contra Costa County, allegedly took the items on April 26.

Hopps is in federal prison in Lewisburg, Pa., for mail fraud. The home at 2 Cliff Road was deeded in 1963 to San Francisco attorneys J. W. Erlich and Eugene Clifford in lieu of legal fees.

True antelopes are found only in Asia and Africa.

William J. Thomas of 154 Trellis Drive, San Rafael, told police Wednesday someone stole license plates and two hubcaps from his two cars parked in front of his house, sometime since Sunday.

Marinites Conduct Drive To Unseat 5 Mississippians

Telegram and petition campaigns are being conducted by the First Congressional District Committee for the Mississippi Freedom Party challenge.

The Freedom Party is challenging the seating of five Mississippi congressmen in the House of Representatives. The challenge is expected to be heard in July.

Mrs. Enid Folger of Mill Valley, co-chairman of the district committee, said petitions are being circulated in the first district and a telegram campaign has been started to get persons to telegraph speaker of the House John W. McCormack.

The telegram urges "the clerk of the house to print all Mississippi challenge testimony immediately so as to insure the information being available to the Congress and the public."

Six Marin attorneys, all of whom took depositions for the challenge in Mississippi, are working on the committee. Mrs. Elizabeth Hanson of Mill Valley is co-chairman.

Furnace Motor Taken At Home

Burglary of a $150 furnace motor from a house at 201 Oleander Drive, Terra Linda, was reported by James J. Finnegan, sheriff's officers said yesterday.

Finnegan told deputies the motor was taken sometime during the past six months from a house for sale at 1192 Las Raposas Road, Terra Linda. Means of entry was not determined.

Deputies also reported a front door of Kaiser Hall at Tamalpais High School was entered by breaking a glass pane during the weekend. A school employee, Grover Cleveland Pitt, Petaluma, discovered the break-in. Nothing was missing.

Wide-Open Pro Football Expansion Race Is On

By BOB GREEN

NEW YORK (AP) — Now the pro football expansion race is on.

Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced he has recommended the National Football League add two teams for a total of 16 by 1967.

Informed of the announcement by The Associated Press, Commissioner Joe Foss of the American Football League said the AFL might do it sooner, perhaps putting two new teams on the field by 1966.

Then they started ticking off potential expansion targets. Between the two of them they covered most of the major cities in the United States and Canada, including some in the rival league. But there's one that wasn't mentioned.

"How about Lewiston, Maine?" Rozelle was asked.

"No, not Lewiston," he said at a Thursday night press conference, and named 12 "major cities which have expressed an interest in an NFL franchise."

They are Montreal, Toronto, Boston, Miami, Atlanta, New Orleans, Cincinnati, Houston, Memphis, Phoenix, Seattle and Portland.

Of the first two, Rozelle said he "would have great concern about disrupting the Canadian Football League. We would not want to do anything detrimental to the CFL."

When it was pointed out that Boston and Houston already had teams in the rival AFL, Rozelle said:

"I have not given extensive thought to that. I have no feelings about those cities in particular."

But Foss had some particular feelings.

"There's plenty of room for both of us," said the commissioner of the five-year-old, eight-team league. "There are any number of cities that can support pro football and any number that can support two teams."

Then he ticked off his list: Chicago, Washington, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Milwaukee, Atlanta, New Orleans, Miami, Columbus and Dayton, Ohio, Portland, Louisville, Memphis, Seattle, Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver.

Chicago, Washington, Philadelphia and Los Angeles all have teams in the 45-year-old NFL and Milwaukee supports the Green Bay Packers, some 60 miles away.

At present, only New York has a team in each league and a two-team trial in Dallas didn't work out, with the AFL team moving to Kansas City. Both leagues are now armed with millions of dollars in television money and are looking for new markets.

In fact, when Rozelle presented his recommendation to the NFL club owners, they directed him to hire a private market research organization to investigate the potential of prospective new league cities.

When he has that information, he will present a recommendation to the league meeting in February.

"I expect to have the name of one, or perhaps both cities to present to the meeting," he said. He added, however, that no details have been worked out, including the method for stocking any new teams.

He did say that expansion could bring realignment of the present conference structure, possibly two conferences with two four-team divisions each.

He said he felt the recommendation would pass. It requires the vote of 12 of 14 league directors.

"We have said all along that

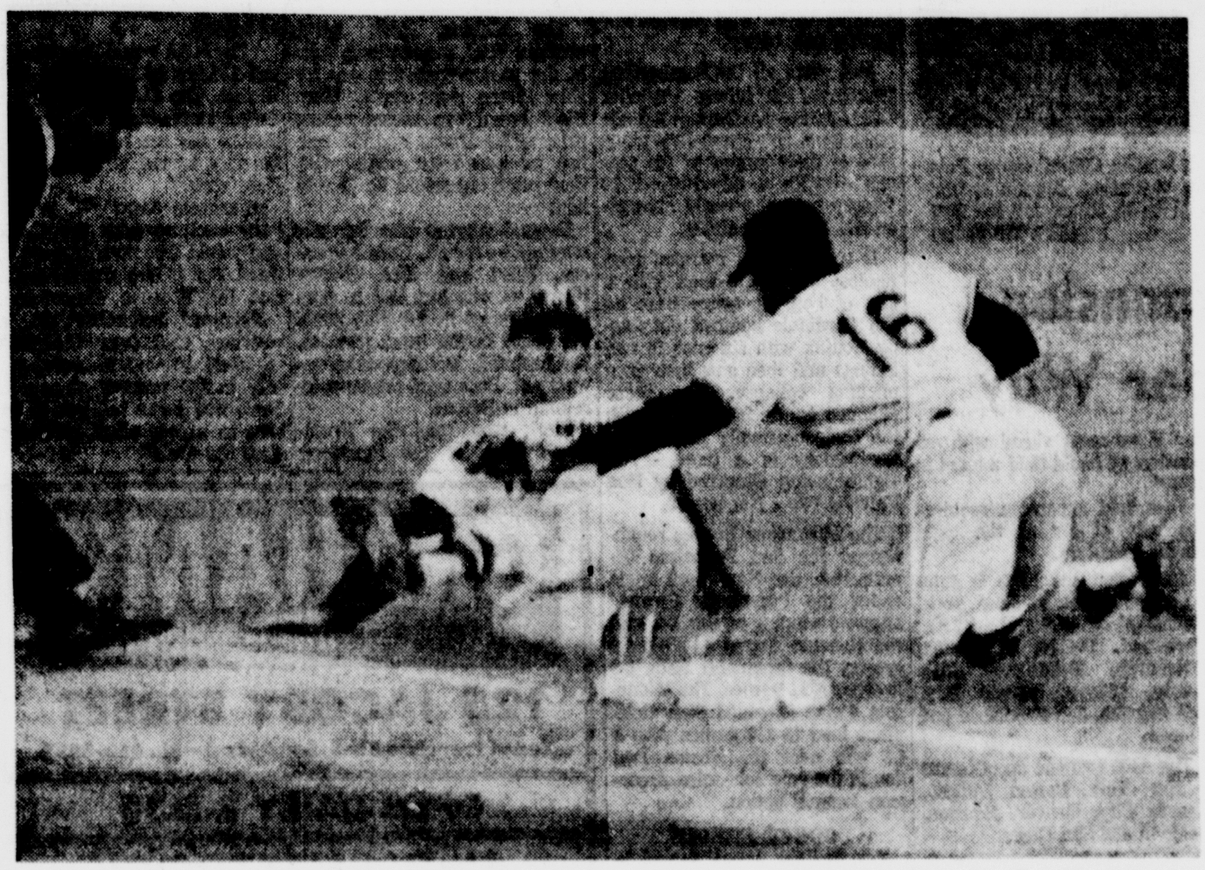
New Life In Giant Relief Corps



THIS BRAVE DIDN'T SCORE — Although Milwaukee Braves continued to murder Giant pitching last night, here's one Brave who didn't make it to the plate. It's Gene Oliver, Milwaukee first baseman, being tagged out by Jim Ray Hart on an attempted steal of third in the second inning. Calling the play is umpire Bill Jackowski. (UPI Telephoto)

Starters Can Use The Help

CINCINNATI (UPI) — Just when the San Francisco Giants' bullpen seems to be coming around, the starting rotation looks ready to buckle.

The Giants lost for the fourth straight time to Milwaukee last night in a 10-3 romp that ended for all practical purposes when the Braves piled nine runs in the third. Bob Shaw gave up four runs in two innings and erstwhile starter Ron Herbel surrendered five more in one-third of an inning.

Then Masanori Murakami came on and gave up a homer to Eddie Mathews that climaxed the whole ghastly third inning, but Murakami pitched well from there on. Bob Bolin, who has pitched brilliantly of late, and newly-acquired Bill Hands then combined on five hitless innings.

The comeback of Bolin, the addition of Hands, and the sharp pitching of Frank Linzy would seem to mean new life for the Giants relief corps—at least as far as right-handers are concerned. But starters Jack Sanford, Shaw and Herbel have been unable to get enough batters out and even Juan Marichal seems to have lost the winning touch temporarily. Only Gaylord Perry has shown class lately among the San Francisco front-liners.

While the Braves carved up Shaw and Herbel last night, San Francisco could manage only six hits off the cutie-pie offerings of veteran Ken Johnson.

The San Francisco runs were scored in rather feeble fashion as an error, a wild pitch, and a bases-loaded walk brought in the tallies. Shortstop Dick Schofield was the only San Francisco to get two hits, while the Giant attack again suffered from the lack of a healthy Willie Mays. He sat out most of the contest with a heavy chest cold, then pinch-hit in the ninth and walked.

San Francisco has to be awed by the Braves' power. In Milwaukee's three-game sweep at Candlestick Park last week, they piled up 28 runs. They did not slacken the pace last night.

After the Braves had completed their sweep last week, Cincinnati came to town and San Francisco got well with three straight victories. The Giants hoped for a repeat of history as they moved into the Reds' ballpark for the opener of a three-game set.

Sanford (3-1) was set to go against Joey Jay (3-1) in a battle of veteran right-handers.

Hockey Franchise Battle

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A fight shapes up for the San Francisco-Oakland franchise in the National Hockey League if and when one becomes available.

It could be in 1966 and the rival factions are:

The ownership of the San Francisco Seals, in the Western Hockey League the past four seasons and winners two of the past three, and:

A group including Bing Crosby with Barry Van Gerbig of New York, a former Princeton University player, as spokesman.

Last March 11, President Clarence Campbell of the NHL announced a proposal to expand the six-team league to a 12-team circuit. San Francisco was mentioned as one of the top possibilities.

No date for the expansion was set but many feel it could come in 1966.

Van Gerbig called a news conference yesterday to say, We have reason to believe we have pretty darn good support in the league." He said Crosby would have controlling interest in the franchise if it is awarded to the group.

The spokesman said his associates propose to have a Bay Area team playing in the $25.5 million Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum complex scheduled for completion in 1966.

Mel Swig, president of the Seals, had a representative at the conference who handed statements to members of the news media as they left.

Swig said, "We are anxious, able and ready—as soon as the NHL Board of Governors decides—to become the NHL team representing San Francisco."

Van Gerbig said his group had attempted to purchase stock in the Seals recently but was unsuccessful when the Shasta Corp. bought a one-half interest.

Swig's statement attacked the new groups proposal, saying, "The facts are simply these... we are San Franciscans. We're here. And we have invested time, effort and capital to bring good hockey to San Francisco."

Van Gerbig pointed out Crosby lives in hearby Hillsborough and that he, himself, plans to move to San Francisco whether or not the NHL franchise is granted.

Any Idiot Can Make Hole-In-One

FLINT, Mich.—The nicest thing about a hole-in-one is that any idiot with a golf club can make one. Arnold Palmer is no better a bet than you are.

You don't have to keep your head down, your left arm straight, hit from the inside-out, follow through, or do any of the assorted impossible things a great shot calls for. You can make it with any club in the bag with the possible exception of a putter. It's one of the most missed shots in golf.

The odds against your making a hole-in-one are 1,200-1 a year. The odds against a pro making a hole-in-one are only 400-1 a year. It's such an odd-ball shot the late Gene Fowler, who recognized golf as one of the most idiotic of man's pastimes, always wanted to write a book titled: "How to Make a Hole-in-One." If you think it wouldn't have been published, you don't know golf. Or publishing.

A hole-in-two (on a par five hole) is infinitely more difficult. It has been computed that the odds abainst a double-eagle are 1,551,725-1. I don't know who sat up nights figuring it out but the public coundn't care less. There are some guys who pack a lunch and sit by par-three for an ace. Trouble is, if you've seen one, you've seen 'em all.

THE WORST thing about a hole-in-one is you have to buy a drink for everyone in the clubhouse. Some wise guy figured years ago a way to spread the cost around the rest of the country. He got the insurance companies to bet against one. Now, ordinarily, insurance companies are crapshooters who bring their own dice and pay house odds. But they got in the wrong game this time. Lloyd's of London insured a Palm Springs tournament against a hole-in-one a few years ago. They charged $4,000 for a $50,000 payoff. A golfer named Joe Cambell made one. He had carved himself up so many ways, he lost almost as much money on the deal as Lloyd's of London.

I don't know whether they rang that ship-sinking bell when Cambell's shot went in, but the next year, the price against holes-in-one went down and the cost of insurance went up. It usually does.

I THINK the premium went to 12 grand. And a golfer named Don January made one. I don't know how many underwriters Lloyd's fired but when Palm Springs wanted to insure against a $50,000 hole-in-one the next year, the insurance company said, sure. Thal'll be $68,000, please.

They give a new automobile at this Buick open for an ace. I forget which make of car it is but I'll bet you 20-1 the clock doesn't work on the dash or the windshield wiper squirts all the water on the roof.

THE INSURANCE companies aren't the only ones who hate a hole-in-one. A guy up in Massachusetts made one recently and, when he found out he had to buy drinks for the house, he petitioned the USGA to get it declared an unplayable lie, which it sure as hell is. He really wanted to make it an un-buy-able liet but the USGA told him to pay up and tee up.

Art Wall has made about 38 holes-in-one in his lifetime, several of them when nobody was looking. The guy up in Massachusetts envies him. Personally, I always make birdies when nobody is looking and "11s" when I got a gallery. Part of the reason, of course, is that when nobody's looking, I cheat.

Sam Snead has made 14 holes-in-one in his career. I don't think Ben Hogan ever made any. Not unless the club slipped. He's too good a player. Holes in one are for first tee spastics, not Hogans.

THERE WERE 19 made on the tour last year—29 was the all-time high in 1959. This makes the current odds against an ace 19 times 4 times 4, according to golf's demon statistician, Doc Giffin. Don't blame me for the algebra but he figures 19 holes-in-one were made on a probability of 4

Youngster Leader In Buick

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (AP) — Young Steve Spray took a giant step toward a slice of the $100,000 Buick Open Golf Tournament jackpot by taking the first round lead yesterday.

Spray, 24, playing in his seventh tournament and yet to win a penny, fashioned a brilliant 32-36—68 over the Warwick Hills Golf and Country Club course. The links yielded only 11 subpar rounds opening day as 144 pros tussled with the par 72 course.

One stroke back was Julius Boros, the winner here in 1963. Six others, including Jack Nicklaus and Doug Sanders, were two strokes off the pace.

Defending champion Tony Lema had a 71 on the 7,280-yard course, longest on the pro tour.

Spray entered the Iowa Open two days after he turned pro last September and won it, pocketing $750. But he has yet to win money on the PGA tour.

Spray learned to play on the nine-hole course in his home town, Indianola, Iowa.

He won the NAIA championship in 1962 and agani in 1963 after taking the Western Junior championship in 1959.

Boros putted only 25 times on his round. He had nine one-putt greens and holed an 80-foot chip shot on the 451-yard second hole.

Among the score scrambling to survive the cut to the low 70-plus ties today was U.S. Open champion Ken Venturi. In one of his last major warmups in preparation of defense for his crown, he had a 76.

Arnold Palmer and Gary Player were among 20 pros deadlocked at 73. Bruce Crampton, No. 2 money winner and the only three-time winner of this season's tour, had a 77.

Rod Laver Romps To Quick Win

SEATTLE (AP)—It took Rod Laver just 38 minutes yesterday to advance to the semi-finals in the $10,000 Greater Seattle tennis tournament.

The Australian lefthander whipped Barry MacKay 6-1, -62. He said afterward "this has been my best year in tennis." Laver, seeded No. 1 in this tourney, and Pancho Gonzales, a winner Wednesday, have clinched two of the spots in the semis.

In other singles action yesterday, Mal Anderson wore down Pancho Segura to defeat the Ecuadorian 3-6, 6-4, 6-2.

The singles' quarterfinals will be completed today when Ken Rosewall meets Anderson and Andres Gimeno faces Earl Buchholz.

Rosewall and Anderson teamed in yesterdays doubles to defeat Gonzales and Gimeno 6-4 6-1 and earn their way into the semi-finals.

MILE CLASSIC

Prep Challenges The Great Snell

By ALEX KAHN

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Peter Snell, a man of pride and unchallenged skill, competes against prep star Jim Ryun and other standout performers tonight in the featured mile run of the 26th annual Compton Invitational track meet at the Coliseum.

Snell, retiring afer this summer's competition, wouldn't predict a possible new world record but has mused about the possibility of an eventual 3:50.0. The New Zealand distance star does figure to approach his Coliseum record of 3:56.1, regardless of how close he comes to an all-time high.

Ryun, of Wichita, Kans., holds the fastest time of the year—3:58.1. Olympic silver medalist Josef Odlozil of Czechoslovakia; Jim Grelle of Portland, Ore.; Cary Weisiger of Durham, N.C. and Bob Schul of Los Angeles all have been under the once magic four minute time.

The meet formerly was held in the community of Compton, but was moved to the Coliseum in part because Snell's appearance was expected to attract a larger crowd than Compton could accommodate.

Although Snell's entrance in the meet is the biggest attraction, there are many other fine performers including world record holder Ron Clarke of Australia in the 5,000-meter run. Clarke warmed up last week by running the fastest two miles in the world this year at 8:32.0 and is shooting for a record tonight. His mark is 13:33.6.

Two men who set world records a week ago at Modesto, Calif.,—Hal Connolly in the hammer throw and Ralph Boston in the long jump—will compete in their specialties.

The 440-yard dash matches Olympic star Mike Larrabee and Ulis Williams of Arizona State; the 440-yard hurdles sends Rex Cawley, another Olympic champion, against Willie Atterberry and Jay Luck, and Bill Crothers of Canada is the favorite in the 880 against Ted Nelson, Jim Dupree, Ralph Lee and four-minute miler John Garrison.

SEMI-PRO BASEBALL

Builders Can Field And All-Pro Lineup

(Last of two articles on Marin semi-pro baseball teams)

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Manager Joe Anselmo will take a team that boasts 43 years of professional baseball into the Bay Area Invitational League when the Billings - Hutchison Builders make their league debut tomorrow.

First foes of the Builders will be the Hatzell Radio team from El Cerrito, state champ in 1961. That game will be at Albert Field, San Rafael tomorrow at 8 o'clock.

Ten of the men on the B-H roster have played some pro ball, either in the major leagues or minor leagues, mostly the latter. "If need be, we can use an all-pro lineup," said Anselmo, himself a former professional first baseman.

The Builders' pitching corps lists seven men, four right-handers and three southpaws.

Ace of the staff will be Bob DeRosa, voted co-most valuable player on the team the past two years. Last summer in the Marin County league, DeRosa compiled an 11-2 record and had an incredible 0.45 earned run average. The southpaw walked only two men all season. He is one of the big reasons the Builders won championships the past two years.

The other two lefties on the pitching staff have both played minor league ball: Paul Chaffee with Salt Lake City of the old Pioneer League, and Ernie Evans with the St. Louis Cardinals organization, reaching as high as Jacksonville of the American Assn.

Righthander Dave Hughes is a former all-stater from the University of Oregon baseball team. Larry Calof, another rightie, is a graduate of Virginia Military Institute now going to Stanford. He has to wait a year to be eligible to play at Stanford because of his transfer status, but should be one of the top hurlers on next years Indians team.

Dick Descalso picked up five years pro experience in the Philadelphia Phillies chain. Completing the staff is Ed Hutchison, pitcher at Redwood High School, the youngest member of the squad.

Jess Munyon, a lefthanded swinger, will be doing almost all the catching for the team. A former star at University of Oregon, he has been hitting around the .400 clip in Builders' practice games this season.

Dick Spackman, 21-year-old former football and baseball star at Drake High where he was voted all-league, is the first baseman, and has been clouting the ball at a .450 pace this year.

Veteran of the team is second baseman Jess Jacinto, 39, and father of five. The little guy stands 5-4 and weighs 145 pounds, but has 11 years of professional baseball behind him.

Shortstop is Ron Blum, ex-star in baseball, baseball and football at Marin Catholic and College of Marin. He just recently got out of pro baseball after spending three years in the minor leagues, in the Pirates and Cubs organizations.

Don Lauters is the B-H third sacker and got his pro experience with the old Los Angeles and Oakland teams of the Pacific Coast League and brief stints with the Cincinnati Reds and Chicago Cubs. He has been hitting .380 in practice games this year.

Utility infielders include Jim Sanderson, an all-leaguer from Vallejo Junior College, and Paul Giambra, two-year all-city performer at Galileo High School in San Francisco.

Among the outfielders are Doug Wilson, Marin Catholic grad who played three years in the San Francisco Giants chain, and Vince Pallavicini, ex-Drake star who was in the Pirates organization. Wilson has hit safely 22 times in his last 29 at bats, a phenomenal .759. Pallavicini is a long ball hitter who led the Marin County League in runs batted in last year while playing with the Fairfax Garage team.

Ernie Demattei, outfielder, is another Builder strongman who leads the team in home runs. John Brookman is an all-around utility man who also is a switch hitter. The holler guy of the club, he led the team in hits and RBI last year.

Other utility men include Tim Reardon, John Brookman, Mike Dunne and Jerry Crues.

AFL Eyes Philly, Atlanta

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The American Football league probably will expand into Philadelphia and Atlanta next week with the Philadelphia franchise going to a group headed by former West Point Coach Earl (Red) Blaik and Joseph McCrane, general manager of Garden State Park.

AFL expansion action is almost certain after yesterday's announcement by Pete Rozelle, commissioner of the National Football League, that he has recommended expansion for the older professional football circuit.

It was learned that Rozelle's step was taken after efforts failed for a common player draft by the two leagues. The AFL expansion committee meets next week, and the necessary approval of six of the eight owners for expansion is expected.

McCrane, son-in-law of Eugene Mori, operating head of Garden State and Hialeah race tracks, played under Col. Blaik at West Point, which led to their association in the AFL venture.

VINCE LOMBARDI

Blaik, it was learned, would be general manager of the new Philadelphia francise, and Vince Lombardi, current coach of the Green Bay Packers in the NFL and a former Blaik pupil at Army, will be offered the coaching job.

The imminent invasion by the AFL of Philadelphia is what has prompted Jerry Wolman, owner of the Philadelphia Eagles, to press vigorously for exclusive use of the proposed new $25 million stadium in South Philadelphia.

The Eagles currently play at Penn's 60,000 seat Franklin Field. The only other stadiums in town are Temple Stadium, seating about 30,000 where the Philadelphia Bulldogs of the Continental League are to play, and Connie Mack Stadium, owned by Wolman.

There is a strong possibility Franklin Field will be torn down for academic buildings once the new stadium is completed, scheduled for spring, 1967.

Pelican Boats Go Tomorrow

The fourth annual Pelican Trans Bay Race will be held tomorrow, starting at 11 a.m., from Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito.

Boats will proceed across San Francisco Bay, round the degausing buoy off San Francisco Marina Green, and then return, a distance of about 10 miles.

Following the race, the George Ingram Perpetual Trophy will be presented to the winner. A buffet supper and dance will wind up the day's activities.

Treemen Split Doubleheader

Sohner Tree Service softballers of San Anselmo split a doubleheader with the San Francisco Marauders last night at Albert Field in San Rafael, losing the first game 7-1 and winning the second 3-1.

Morey Swarm got the loss in the first game and brother Gary was the victor in the nightcap. Sohner, now with an 8-2 record, travels to Petaluma next Wednesday for a doubleheader against Two Rock Army Base.

EXPANSION?—National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle gestures as he discusses expansion. Rozelle recommended the league grow from 14 to 16 teams for the 1967 season. (UPI Telephoto)

Pro Grid Expansion Race Is Under Way

we would expand when the time came," Rozelle said. "When we expanded in 1959, adding Dallas and Minnesota, there was lots of talk about balance. Now, many of the so-called experts are picking Dallas and Minnesota to win their conferences. That speaks well for balance.

"We seek a greater national scope than we now have.

"I've thought about this a great deal in the last few weeks and I feel the time for expansion is here."

Foss said he'd thought about it longer and was ready to move faster.

"We could very well announce Monday or Tuesday, if we've all made up our minds, what cities we could expand to," Foss said. The league has an expansion meeting scheduled Monday and Tuesday.

"We've been studying this for a longer time than the NFL and I'd be a little more definite and say if we went ahead with expansion we could field a team in 1966."

Foss said expansion requires the vote of six of the eight league directors.

At present the NFL is composed of teams in New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Cleveland, Dallas, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Minnesota, Chicago, Green Bay, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Detroit.

The AFL is made up of teams in New York, Boston, Buffalo, Kansas City, Denver, Houston, Oakland and San Diego.

GREAT ARCHER

CHICAGO (UPI) — Will H. Thompson, who won national championships in 1879, 1884, 1888, 1901 and 1908, is regarded as the first of the great United States archers.

Pancho To Quit After U.S. Tour

SEATTLE (AP) — Richard (Pancho) Gonzales, 37, said today he will retire from the professional tennis tour at the close of the United States schedule, adding that this time his decision is definite.

"I want to devote a lot more time to my family," he said, "and I've made definite plans to concentrate on teaching the sport."

Gonzales, star of American Davis Cup teams before he became the nation's top pro, quit the tourney trail in 1961, "mostly because I was tired." He returned to action in 1963. In addition to his play, he has been coach of the nation's Davis Cup teams.

The general public does not realize the strictness of training necessary for professional competition, the Los Angeles player said, nor the sacrifices an athlete must make to rank with the leading money winners.

Gonzales now stands second to Rod Laver of Australia in earnings. Wednesday evening he defeated Luis Alaya of Chile 6-0, 6-3 in an opening round singles match in the $10,000 Greater Seattle pro tournament. Earl Buchholz of St. Louis defeated Mike Davies of England 8-6, 6-2 in the other first-day match.

Dodgers Fatten N.L. Lead

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Who put the bounce back in the National League baseballs?

This is supposed to be a season of gilt-edged pitching but balls were flying around N.L. parks last night like they were powered by Titan II rockets.

No less than 30 pitchers saw action in four games yielding a total of 59 runs, including 14 doubles, two triples and nine homers, walking 34 batters, making seven wild pitches and hitting one batter.

And when all the bombarding was over, the hitless - wonder Los Angeles Dodgers had opened up a five-game first-place lead — their largest of the season — with a tidy little 11-10 victory over the world champion St. Louis Cardinals.

It was like the married men against the single men with a keg of beer at every base as the Cardinals bombed out Sandy Koufax with six runs in two innings and then saw their own pitching collapse. The score changed hands four times with the Dodgers finally pulling out the victory in a three - run eighth inning climaxed by Ron Fairly's two - run homer.

The Milwaukee Braves roughhoused the San Francisco Giants 10-3, the New York mets ended the Pittsburgh Pirates' 12-game winning streak 8-6, and the Houston Astros slapped around the Cincinnati Reds 8-3 in other N.L. games. The Minnesota Twins extended their first-place lead to 1½ games with a 4-3 win over the Boston Red Sox in the only scheduled American League action.

DODGER ERRORS

Two Dodger errors helped to victimize Koufax but Los Angeles battled back for a 7-7 tie in the fourth inning and trailed 10-8 going into the eighth. Wes Parker started the winning rumble with a double, Jim Gilliam singled and Fairly followed with his game-winning homer.

There were a total of 29 hits in the game, including homers by Fairly, Ken Boyer, Bob Skinner and Julian Javier, a triple by Maury Wills and six doubles.

The Mets ended the Pirates' 12-game streak with an 11-hit attack concentrated largely in a six-run fourth inning which produced an 8-0 lead. The big blows of the inning were a bases-filled single by pitcher Galen Cisco, Ed Kranepool's two-run double and a two-run single by Joe Christopher. Andre Rodgers went 4-for-4 and Willie Stargell and Jerry Lynch homered for the Pirates.

ASTRO OFFENSE

Rusty Staub's three-run homer and three hits each by Ron Brand and Bob Lillis led the Astros' nine-hit offense which brought Don Nottebart his first victory of the season. Hal Woodeshick cleaned up for Nottebart when the Reds scored two runs in the ninth.

Camilo Pascual gained his seventh straight win on the strength of seven innings of five-hit pitching and an eight-hit attack led by Bob Allison's eighth homer. Bill Mongouquette suffered his fifth defeat for the Red Sox.

CLUB FOR SALE

Boston To Lose Celt Franchise?

BOSTON (AP) — The 1965-66 season will mark the swan songs of Red Auerbach as coach and K. C. Jones as playmaker of the eight-time world champion Celtics. Will it also be the finale for the franchise in Boston?

No, insists National Basketball Association President Walter Kennedy.

No promises, indicates one of the six prospective purchasing groups, the Schmelzer Brothers of Cleveland.

No comment, offers co-owner and President Lou Pieri of Providence, R.I.

The Celtics, with seven straight NBA crowns and eight in the past nine years, are for sale at the right price. When Pieri heard the recent selling price of Baltimore was $1.1 million he hinted the proper Celtics' price tag might be $3 million.

Several sources hint the sale may not be far off. Both co-owners, Pieri and Mrs. Walter Brown — who has had to take some interest in the club since the death of the team founder, her husband, last September — want out. Both want the team to remain in Boston.

Pieri, who runs the Providence Reds of the American Hockey League, admitted last night that brothers Raymond, Lawrence and Jerome Schmelzer of Cleveland comprise one of six groups currently negotiating for purchase of the club.

Auerbach has done virtually all of the running of the Celtics as general manager as well as coach since Brown's death. He has announced the coming season will be his last as coach. Jones has stated he will retire after the campaign to coach at Brandeis.

The Boston Record-American quotes NBA President Kennedy as saying:

"The NBA would not stand for the Celtics to be moved from Boston. The Celtics have established professional basketball in Boston and are as important to the city as the Yankees are to New York."

Auerbach says: "I have a year contract with the Celtics and would live up to my agreement. But if they move the Celtics, they'll move without me."

Raymond Schmelzer, 33, an attorney, siad from Cleveland, "I must emphasize we're still only in the process of negotiations. But I can tell you it will take in excess of $2 million to close the deal."

Stanek, Pregenzer Collaborate In Tacoma Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pitchers frustrated batters at Oklahoma City and San Diego but it was visa versa elsewhere in the Pacific Coast League Thursday night.

Tacoma southpaw Al Stanek 2-5, aided by reliever John Pregenzer in the final two innings, banked the Oklahomans 2-0 on four hits. The Giants got their two runs in the top of the third on a walk and three singles.

Two Seattle pitchers—starter Bob Radovich and Jack Spring—also held San Diego to four hits in shutting out the Padres 5-0. Radovich, 3-4, was replaced by Spring in the seventh.

Radovich and Spring were aided by an 11-hit Angel attack, sparked by Earl Averill's two-run homer and a solo round-tripper by Bob Guindon.

Heavy hitters also spurred Arkansas to a 7-6 victory over Indianapolis, Portland's 7-4 win over Salt Lake City, Spokane to a 4-2 edge over Denver and Vancouver to a 4-3 verdict over Hawaii.

Braves Call Up Southpaw Hurler

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves recalled southpaw pitcher Dick Kelley from Atlanta last night.

Two other hurlers, Clay Carroll and Bob Tiefenauer, were sent down to the International League club.

Kelley, 25, compiled a 9-1 record at Atlanta. He worked two innings for the Braves last year before suffering a circulatory ailment in his left arm. He was sidelined the rest of the season.

Salmon Trolling Slow; Striper Reports Are Not Any Better

STEVENS

An old maxim has it that "Nothing ventured, nothing gained." So it was with the salmon boats on Monday and Tuesday. Took a bit of daring to buck the wind and waves after passing under the G.G.Gate, but those that did, and continued to the area east of the Farallones, found surprisingly calm water and not too much wind. Not that the boats loaded up—quite the reverse, but the party boat Jennie C, out of Caruso's Sausalito harbor boated 14 salmon to 22 pounds, and from the Oakland side of the bay, the Miss Dragnet took an even dozen salmon to 34 pounds; The Lucky Day No. 2 had nine to 20 pounds, also on Monday. The Whirlaway unloaded 13 salmon to 29 pounds. The above was reported by Lee Anderson's shop in Oakland. Also from Lee's came the report of the Duke No. 2 landing a 52-pound sturgeon in the Sisters area.

MY HALLICRAFTERS was unusually silent on Tuesday and Wednesday, particularly on Wednesday. A clue to what was happening with the salmon trollers, however, came from one skipper telling another that he had no fish in the box, and judged other boats to have found fishing very slow. That was at 10:30 a.m. Could be that the action will quicken later in the day.

Regarding striper striving inside the Gate, it has not been even fair. All news from the upper San Pablo Bay concerned the sturgeons. The one exception is the fair trolling near the Sisters. Unverified reports have it that several limits were boated late in the day on Monday ditto on Tuesday.

NOTE TO DEERSLAYERS: Early deer season will open on Aug. 7—not on the 14th as erroneously released on May 29.

The following waters will be (or already are) stocked with catchable-size trout. ALAMEDA County—Alameda Creek. LAKE Co.—Upper Blue Lake. MARIN Co.—Rodeo Lagoon, Bon Tempe Reservoir, Lagunitas Reservoir. MENDOCINO Co.—East Branch of Russian River. MONTEREY Co.—Lower Arroyo Seco River, Big Sur River, Carmel River. NAPA Co.—Hennessey Lake Impoundment. SAN FRANCISCO Co. — Lake Merced Impoundment. SANTA CRUZ Co.—Loch Lomond, San Lorenzo River. SAN LUIS OBISPO Co.—Santa Rosa Creek, San Simeon Lagoon, Reservoir Canyon Lake, Lower Nacimiento River, Chorro Reservoir, Lopez Creek. SAN MATEO Co.—Pescadero Creek. SONOMA Co.—Lake Ralphine.

JUST HEARD a skipper of a salmon trolling boat broadcast that the weather and water outside the Gate was calm and beautiful. Now if the schools of salmon are relocated, happy days are here again!

And that's it for today.

Split State Amendment Is Gaining

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate is set to debate a constitutional amendment that would split California into two states — one senator's answer to the upper house's reapportionment headache.

Sen. Richard J. Dolwig, R-San Mateo, the amendment's sponsor, declares it would be "one answer to the whole reapportionment problem."

The amendment cleared the Senate Finance Committee last night with little debate, and went to the floor.

Dolwig said the measure was triggered by last year's U. S. Supreme Court decision that both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned on a population basis. The Senate is under a July 1 deadline to obey that ruling.

Using the Tehachapi Mountains as the dividing line, the amendment would:

Create a state out of seven southern counties with a population of over 10.3 million.

Carve a northern state with 51 counties and a population of 7.8 million.

Two-thirds approval must be mustered from the legislature before a final vote could be cast by the people next year.

Bank Failure Handling Probe

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An investigation of State Superintendent of Banks John O'Kane's handling of the failure of a Mendocino County bank has been ordered by Gov. Brown.

Brown assigned his executive secretary, Winslow Christian, to work with Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch in the probe.

O'Kane was blasted by the Los Angeles County Grand Jury for "apparent negligence" and failure to take "decisive action" in the case.

Assembly Group Applauded As Bay Fill Bill Is Passed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — To the happy applause of a big crowd, a measure to clamp controls on filling of San Francisco Bay has cleared its first Assembly test unanimously.

The measure, already approved by the Senate, won endorsement late last night of the Assembly Municipal and County Government Committee. It went to the Ways and Means Committee for examination of its $185,450 cost.

An audience of about 200, most in favor of the measure by Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, approved the action.

Amendments offered by the Port of Oakland, a dredging company and a land development company were rejected.

The committee did accept, however, an amendment from the office of Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles. It took two of the seven public appointees to the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission given the governor and instead put them in the hands of the legislature.

An oryx's gestation period—in a zoo at any rate — is 260 days.

Banking Laws Bill Weakened

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A weakened version of a once-strict revision of California's banking laws has moved to the Assembly from the Senate.

The bill by Sen. Alvin C. Weingan, D-Santa Barbara, was spurred by recent bank failures in the state. Solid opposition from bankers forced him to substantially change the measure to save it.

As amended, it adds three deputies to the state banking superintendent's staff; makes it a crime to receive a commission for obtaining a bank deposit; and requires banking crimes be reported immediately to the proper authorities.

Tampering Charged

Robert G. Guiney, 40, of 803 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was booked at county jail yesterday on a charge of tampering after San Rafael Police Patrolman Phillip D. Green caught him letting air out of a car's tire in the rear of 912 Lootens Place.

Lucas Valley On Tour

The Lucas Valley Guild of Sunny Hills will present their seventh annual house tour on June 12 from 2 to 5 p.m. with a "Bouquet of Homes" as the theme, it will feature flower arrangements by the Marinwood Garden Club in each home.

The tour starts in Marinwood with the C. L. Smith home, an example of the possibilities of expansion for a Cape Cod house. The Smiths have added a large room on the back with sliding walls and a built-in barbeuce. A separate wing containing a children's play room borders the swimming pool.

THE W. A. BAUER home in Upper Lucas Valley is a combination of the modern and the antique. An emmense armiore, finished by Mrs. Bauer in antique blue, dominates the living room. The red brocade walls in the master bedroom make a dramatic background for Victorian furniture.

The Scandinavian decor of the P. W. Zell home reflects the owners' European background. Mr. Zell is a furniture manufacturer and their furniture has been designed by him for beauty and utility. Most of the pieces hang on the walls, and the furniture in the children's room has been built to grow with them. The appreciation of the Zells for fine woods is shown in their choice of pecan wood for the walls in the family room, and the perfectly matched rosewood walls in the dining room. The yard is a model of easy maintenance with a deck over-

THE FINAL STOP on the Lucas Valley house tour June 12 will be the Grace Mauerhan home which is set in a redwood grove above the creek near Nicasio. The house has three decks and is designed for comfort and to take advantage of the site. Guests will enjoy a "champagne tea" there following the tour. From left are Mesdames David A. Hurd, Glen W. Widdows, Roland Fenz and Henry Whittier.

President Of Jolly Rogers Enjoys Writing Publicity

Doing publicity work on the haunted house, an annual Jolly Rogers Chapter event, is cited as an enjoyable pastime by the club's new president, Mrs. Douglas Ascher of San Rafael.

Participation in the Northgate fashion lunches, a summer family party, the haunted house in October, new members tea in January and spring dance in May keep the Jolly Rogers Chapter of Children's Home Society quite active. Sandra Ascher has been publicity chairman for the group for three years.

She and her husband, Douglas, reside in San Rafael with their two children, Stacey, 6 and Bryan, 5. Sandra particularly enjoys swimming, cooking and writing publicity for the chapter.

The new president, active in Sunny Hills Guild 4 of Terra Linda, received a bachelor of arts degree from San Jose State College in general elementary education.

Assisting her will be Mesdames Paul Bates of Wodacre, vice president; Irving Chapman Jr. of Novato, corresponding secretary; Richard Miller of San Rafael, recording secretary; Randall Bechtel of Novato, treasurer; Noel McCarthy of San Rafael, membership chairman; and Charles Stumpf of San Rafael, publicity chairman.

Preference For Large Family Named Overpopulation Cause

By CHARLES SCHAEFFER
Advanced News Service

WASHINGTON — America's well-heeled educated class is more to blame for the postwar population explosion than the poor.

Better educated couples "plan" their families. But they plan big.

This is the surprise finding of the National Academy of Sciences National Research Council in a follow-up survey of its 1963 review of the nation's growing population problems.

America's "underprivileged" account for part of the population rise, too, the council said. But the effect has been more of hardship on them than a contribution to the national birth rate.

UNLESS AMERICA attacks the multiple causes of overpopulation, it will fall short of its "noble goals of optimum education for all, universal abundance, enriched leisure, equal opportunity, quality, beauty and creativity," the council said in a report.

The report calls for appointment of a person "at a high national level"—presumably a subcabinet post—to take over coordination and direction of the population problem.

A number of federal agencies currently are reported reshaping their views to put forth some form of government birth-control policy as the solution to poverty and unemployment.

Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz recently hinted broadly that family planning might be needed to fight chronic joblessness.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare is said to have a White House go-ahead to delve a little deeper into this previously hands-off area, opening the possibility of a step-up in federal grants to localities that tackle the problem squarely.

RESIDING IN KENTFIELD are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guy Mariani who were married May 22 at Mission San Rafael Arcangel in San Rafael. The bride is the former Sandra Lee Huntley of Novato.

Lucas Valley On Tour

The Lucas Valley Guild of Sunny Hills will present their seventh annual house tour on June 12 from 2 to 5 p.m. with a "Bouquet of Homes" as the theme, it will feature flower arrangements by the Marinwood Garden Club in each home.

The tour starts in Marinwood with the C. L. Smith home, an example of the possibilities of expansion for a Cape Cod house. The Smiths have added a large room on the back with sliding walls and a built-in barbeuce. A separate wing containing a children's play room borders the swimming pool.

THE W. A. BAUER home in Upper Lucas Valley is a combination of the modern and the antique. An emmense armiore, finished by Mrs. Bauer in antique blue, dominates the living room. The red brocade walls in the master bedroom make a dramatic background for Victorian furniture.

The Scandinavian decor of the P. W. Zell home reflects the owners' European background. Mr. Zell is a furniture manufacturer and their furniture has been designed by him for beauty and utility. Most of the pieces hang on the walls, and the furniture in the children's room has been built to grow with them. The appreciation of the Zells for fine woods is shown in their choice of pecan wood for the walls in the family room, and the perfectly matched rosewood walls in the dining room. The yard is a model of easy maintenance with a deck over-

THE FINAL STOP on the Lucas Valley house tour June 12 will be the Grace Mauerhan home which is set in a redwood grove above the creek near Nicasio. The house has three decks and is designed for comfort and to take advantage of the site. Guests will enjoy a "champagne tea" there following the tour. From left are Mesdames David A. Hurd, Glen W. Widdows, Roland Fenz and Henry Whittier.

President Of Jolly Rogers Enjoys Writing Publicity

Doing publicity work on the haunted house, an annual Jolly Rogers Chapter event, is cited as an enjoyable pastime by the club's new president, Mrs. Douglas Ascher of San Rafael.

Participation in the Northgate fashion lunches, a summer family party, the haunted house in October, new members tea in January and spring dance in May keep the Jolly Rogers Chapter of Children's Home Society quite active. Sandra Ascher has been publicity chairman for the group for three years.

She and her husband, Douglas, reside in San Rafael with their two children, Stacey, 6 and Bryan, 5. Sandra particularly enjoys swimming, cooking and writing publicity for the chapter.

The new president, active in Sunny Hills Guild 4 of Terra Linda, received a bachelor of arts degree from San Jose State College in general elementary education.

Assisting her will be Mesdames Paul Bates of Wodacre, vice president; Irving Chapman Jr. of Novato, corresponding secretary; Richard Miller of San Rafael, recording secretary; Randall Bechtel of Novato, treasurer; Noel McCarthy of San Rafael, membership chairman; and Charles Stumpf of San Rafael, publicity chairman.

Preference For Large Family Named Overpopulation Cause

By CHARLES SCHAEFFER
Advanced News Service

WASHINGTON — America's well-heeled educated class is more to blame for the postwar population explosion than the poor.

Better educated couples "plan" their families. But they plan big.

This is the surprise finding of the National Academy of Sciences National Research Council in a follow-up survey of its 1963 review of the nation's growing population problems.

America's "underprivileged" account for part of the population rise, too, the council said. But the effect has been more of hardship on them than a contribution to the national birth rate.

UNLESS AMERICA attacks the multiple causes of overpopulation, it will fall short of its "noble goals of optimum education for all, universal abundance, enriched leisure, equal opportunity, quality, beauty and creativity," the council said in a report.

The report calls for appointment of a person "at a high national level"—presumably a subcabinet post—to take over coordination and direction of the population problem.

A number of federal agencies currently are reported reshaping their views to put forth some form of government birth-control policy as the solution to poverty and unemployment.

Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz recently hinted broadly that family planning might be needed to fight chronic joblessness.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare is said to have a White House go-ahead to delve a little deeper into this previously hands-off area, opening the possibility of a step-up in federal grants to localities that tackle the problem squarely.

RESIDING IN KENTFIELD are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guy Mariani who were married May 22 at Mission San Rafael Arcangel in San Rafael. The bride is the former Sandra Lee Huntley of Novato.

INSTALLATION REFLECTIONS

One of the highlights of yesterday afternoon's installation of officers and closing luncheon for the club year of the Sausalito Woman's Club was outgoing president Mrs. Frank E. Rossman's presentation of a president's pin to the new president, Mrs. Conrad T. Kett. From left are Mrs. Rossman, Mrs. Jan Paul Dyk, new second vice president; Mrs. Kett; and Mrs. George R. Chapman, new first vice president. Mrs. Rossman tells Mrs. Kett that the current president should wear her pin with the gavel up. Past presidents wear theirs with gavel down. (Independent-Journal photo)

Oriental Design Is Theme Of Lucas Valley Tour Home

looking a small waterfall in Miller Creek.

THE J. D. COLLINS home is entered through an atrium in Oriental design with pool fountain.

The basic design is modern Oriental accented with touches of Danish modern. In the living room is a most unusual bar constructed on a pole to turn for convenience of all rooms. On the blue and gold foil walls of the master bedroom hangs a Salvador Dali painting from the Vincent Price collection. The Oriental theme is continued in the back garden. which is enhanced by a waterfall and stream.

THE TOUR ENDS with a champagne tea in the redwoods at the home of Mrs. Grace Mauerhan near Nicasio. The architect, Theodore Milhaus, who used natural materials and colors in designing this house, will be present. From the mukluks lined up in the tiled front hall (to be put on for comfort) to the deep divans and comfortable chairs, Mrs. Mauerhan's house expresses hospitality.

EACH HOME WILL have special flower arrangements and appropriate table settings.

Rhythmical Work Is Most Healthy

ITHACA, N. Y. (UPI) — For health's sake, attack household chores by working rhythmically. Use both hands when possible. Make long smooth arm motions rather than short jerky ones.

The advice, from Cornell University home economists Mrs. Marian MacNab Kira and Prof. Mary E. Purchase, was coupled with a reminder that the body is the most important piece of equipment a homemaker has at her disposal. "Knowing how to use it effectively while performing household tasks can eliminate or minimize strain and help speed work," they reported.

'Yes' Vote Recommended On The Civic Center Bonds

The $7,750,000 bond issue to finance the new wing of the Civic Center will go to the voters next Tuesday.

The issues have been clarified and the battle lines drawn. Arguments in favor of the bond issue are overwhelming.

One of the few arguments advanced against the bond issue is based on a false premise—that present facilities are adequate for the next ten years and no new wing is needed.

Anyone with any awareness of county government is certainly aware of the space shortage. Judges have had to use San Rafael city facilities. Many county departments are still quartered in rented facilities away from the courthouse. County grand juries have noted the inadequate facilities of the county jail.

These are the departments that will be using the new Hall of Justice wing at the Civic Center. The need for the wing has been established.

What is the best way to finance that building? The three methods mentioned are: (1) Pay-as-you-build, which is the method being used now, (2) lease and lease-back method, and (3) issue bonds to be paid off over a 25-year period.

Almost every responsible county official, businessman, business group, and civic organization is supporting the third method (bonds). This is the method which voters are being asked to approve next Tuesday through Proposition A.

What's wrong with pay-as-you-build, the method being used now?

The present tax rate includes 20 cents for the civic center construction fund. To continue this "pay-as-you-go" fund and meet a 1968 completion date, a tax rate of 57 cents would be needed for the civic center fund.

This pay-as-you-build method means that today's taxpayers pay for the whole construction today; future generations who will be using the Civic Center get a free ride.

If the bond method is approved by voters Tuesday, no tax increase would be needed. The 20 cents which you now pay for the civic center fund will be more than ample to pay for the bonds. In fact, the supervisors have just assured voters they will cut the tax rate from one cent to five cents if the bonds are approved.

Under pay-as-you-build, construction will have to be delayed until enough funds are accumulated. Even a two-year delay will increase the cost of construction by more than a million dollars because of rising building costs.

How about the lease and lease-back method? Accountants have computed the costs and find that this method would require $600,000 more in interest payment than the general obligation bond method.

Arguments in favor of the bonding method are convincing. Those who would defeat the bonds and delay construction are merely putting off the inevitable day of reckoning when costs will be even higher.

We urge you to vote yes on Proposition A next Tuesday. And voters are reminded that for every "no" vote cast, two "yes" votes will be required just to balance the picture because two-thirds majority is needed for passage of the bonds.

The Heart Of Marin

Digitalis is well-known as an old and effective heart stimulant. It is made from the green leaves of the Digitalis or Foxglove plant which grows wild all along our cool California coast, often among the Redwoods.

Nowadays, much Digitalis is an improved type synthesized in the chemistry laboratories. But the leaves are still used, too.

Foxgloves are attractive spikes of speckled bell-like flowers, commonly a purplish-lavender. They might be said to grow in and for the heart of Marin.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Attorney Goldstein May Have Muni Judgeship All Sewed Up

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

GETTING TO look more and more as if attorney Alvin Goldstein Jr. has the new municipal judgeship sewed up.

That's the post that Judge Joseph G. Wilson gave up when he was promoted to superior court.

Wives usually have the last word, and Ursula McCarthy, the wife of the state senator, is probably no exception.

But last week, she had the tables turned on her. Of course, she wasn't on home ground. The scene was in the state capitol in Sacramento before the staid Senate Business and Professions Committee.

Mrs. McCarthy and Marcelle McCoy (of Marin Art and Garden Fair) entered the committee room to testify for a bill that would increase the building funds for fairs and expositions.

AND WHO should be presiding at the committee hearing! Ursula's husband, Senate Minority Leader Jack McCarthy, sporting a bright blue jacket.

Trying to make a favorable impression on the chairman, Ursula turned on the charm. Facing the audience, she purred: "The handsome gentleman in the blue coat is my husband."

McCarthy rapped the chairman's gavel, reminding the witness that she should address the committee, not the audience. "Madame," the senator dead-panned. "The votes are up here, not in the audience!"

DID YOU KNOW that Supervisor Tom Storer's wife, Inez, is quite an artist in her own right?

Her oil paintings will be on display at the Grete Williams Gallery at 2059 Union Street, San Francisco, from June 8 to July 2.

HAVE THE Goldwater and Rockefeller forces really buried the hatchet after their bitter primary battle of last year?

Perhaps they meant to. But you can just about bet that the hatchet will be exhumed in the 1966 battle for Republican nomination for governor.

The conservatives behind Ronald Reagan and the moderates behind the Thomas Kuchel - George Christopher forces are likely to kick up a bigger fuss than the Goldwater-Rockefeller forces did in 1964.

Dominican Report Cause For Shame?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Sunday's (May 30) CBS report on the Dominican Republic should have brought shame to every American watching it. CBS is to be commended for bringing the facts to the American people instead of the brainwashing of how the U.S. is the good, kind, neutral protector, doing what is best for the Dominican Republic.

How awful for people whose sons or brothers or friends were killed or wounded — to see what it is really for—fighting to deny the Dominican people what they want. What misery the Dominican people have gone through — and when they have a chance of coming out of poverty and military dictators such as Trujillo and his type, then what happens? Gangsters step in, supported by the U.S. military and the American taxpayers' hard-earned money, not to mention American blood. I wish we could get the facts on what is really going on in Viet Nam, too.

State's Disability Insurance No Good

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Is the California State Disability Fund broke? As an employed resident of this fair state for nearly 15 years, I was appalled to learn the other day that the California unemployment disability insurance, premium for which is deducted from our paychecks each and every month, has for some unknown reason became insolvent.

I recently was hospitalized for a period of five days, and at the suggestion of my employer, made application for the hospital benefits available under the state plan (hospital benefits according to law are to be paid at $12 per day for a maximum of 20 days, in addition to any wages paid). I have now been informed by a representative of the state disability insurance office in downtown San Francisco, that payment of these hospital benefits has been suspended indefinitely. Apparently the disability fund is insolvent.

I strongly believe that the public should be alerted of this fact so that in the event of hospitalization they will not innocently rely on this state plan for disability insurance which obviously is no good:

Berkeley-Viet Nam Blackout Charged

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your blackout of the Berkeley Viet Nam Day program seems unfair to those newspaper readers who are exposed to no other daily. Assuming that you disagreed with the intent and technique of this mass protest against our role in the Southeast Asian war, is it not rank censorship to delete coverage of such a newsworthy Bay Area event?

Tens of thousands of concerned citizens (including hundreds from Marin) participated in an exciting, orderly, and illuminating 36-hour program. They were addressed by speakers covering a broad range of the political spectrum; some of them "experts" of international reputation. Questioning was open and the forum was in the true spirit of American democracy.

In reviewing your pages on the days when this significant activity took place I cannot believe that there was no room nor opportunity for you to fulfill your obligations to your readership and the principle of a free press.

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re Carolyn Crane's letter of May 24 . . . reader Crane implies that unless one believes in the U.N. one is not a good citizen of the world. Let us examine the foundation of this structure:

(a) It is weak—the main ingredient is missing. Nowhere in the charter or its subsidiaries is there any reference to a Creator or Supreme Being. The Bible tells us that unless the Lord build a house, they labor in vain who build it. . . .

(b) The membership is composed physically of all nations who wish to join but not spiritually. We are building on a power structure not on the same beliefs. Nations, as people, act on their beliefs and it cannot survive and flourish if some member nations deny God and scoff at moral standards which direct behavior of other member nations. Whose set of standards shall apply?

Where have the Communists demonstrated good will — as since the U.N.'s formation, 20 years ago, they have gone on enslaving country after country.

What kind of world are we to be good citizens of? Peace is a wonderful objective but what kind of peace? Under freedom or slavery? Are the nations united on this question? As for me, I choose freedom.

American flag — Yes. U.N. flag NO!

Water Rate Boost Favors Downtown?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

. . . Marin Municipal Water District decided to increase water rates 15 per cent to raise $6 million over the next 10 years. I figured out exactly how much more I will have to pay for water in the coming year as compared with how much I would have had to pay had the money been raised by a slight increase in the property tax.

The assessor's office told me that an increase of 13.9 cents in property tax rate on all property in the MMWD would have raised $453,000 (the amount needed for the first year). Since the net taxable value of my home, land and personable property is $8,510, I would have to pay $11.83 more in property tax. My water bills last year totaled $105.21. Fifteen per cent of that is $15.78. So the decision of the MMWD will cost me the difference—$3.95.

. . . Then why all the fuss? Does it really make much difference whether water rates go up 15 per cent or the tax rate goes up 13.9 cents? Yes, it makes a big difference to those who hold downtown property. . . .

Capital improvements by MMWD are necessary to serve a larger population. This larger population will cause the rental value of downtown property to go up. Yet those who hold title to these downtown sites use little or no water at those locations. So the real beneficiaries of the $6 million public improvement—the holders of downtown property—will gain at the expense of the rest of us who will be paying 15 per cent more for our water henceforth.

DICK BOTHWELL tells about an old codger in St. Petersburg who fell head over heels in love with a sweet lady forty years his junior. She accepted his proposal of marriage, and mentioned a dream house she had had her eyes on for months. The doddering but delirious bridegroom-to-be bought it for her at once.

Then, alas, the sweet lady vanished into thin air. The old codger then discovered that the house he had bought was hers! He's still trying to sell it for about a third of what he coughed up for it.

U.S. Should Keep Its Bargain To Sell Surplus Wheat To Egypt

CAIRO—The ingredients of improved relations between Egypt and the U.S., which a few months ago seemed strained beyond repair, are coming into view.

THE TIME IS at hand to put these ingredients together into a pattern of two-way cooperation.

From all my conversations in Cairo I am convinced that President Gamal Abdel Nasser wishes to do so on a basis of mutual respect and adequate good will. He seems interested in creating a climate in which past lacerations can mend.

Before I left Washington it was evident that President Lyndon B. Johnson also wished to do so on the same basis.

The new Egyptian-provided library building to replace the one which officials wish had never been burned in the first place, is being readied for early occupancy by the USIA and will be rent-free.

Nasser is giving a thousand books in his own name.

The Cairo press is relatively calm these days, at least as far as the U.S. is concerned. Favorable dispatches and comments are not suffocating us but it is obvious that the papers are taking a rather more relaxed attitude on U.S.-Egyptian differences over Viet Nam, the Congo and the Dominican Republic which in the past, it seemed, were deliberately kept churning.

NOW IS THE TIME for a mutual breakthrough.

Our contribution is for Washington to make it clear that it is ready now to fulfill the last installments of our three-year agreement to sell U.S. wheat to Egypt for its currency.

Under this contract the U.S. has a moral obligation to sell $37 million worth of surplus American wheat.

We should do so because to back out now would be to make a golden gift to the Soviets by thrusting into their hands the opportunity to take over the remaining installment of the wheat deal and say to Egypt and the world: "When the U.S. reneges, we'll do it for you."

WE SHOULD MEET our commitment graciously and promptly because the right moment is at hand to do our part in achieving a breakthrough in establishing better relations with Egypt in our mutual interests.

On this basis we can help repair some of the past and start to build cautiously for the future.

The U.S. has a large stake in the welfare and stability of the whole Arab world. Its peace is crucial to the peace of the world. Its flow of oil is vital to Western Europe. Its trade is important. For all these reasons the friendly presence of the U.S. should be felt.

One means of making it constructively felt is to continue to make American surplus wheat available when it is needed and wanted.

I am convinced that President Nasser does not wish the whole weight of aid to come from the East.

THE EVIDENCE TODAY is that Nasser wants to do his share to bring about improved Egyptian-U.S. relations.

Diplomat Is Promoted Despite Oswald Error

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Boris H. Klosson, the Sate Department official who played a key role in clearing the way for Lee Harvey Oswald's return from Russia, is slated for a major promotion.

A career foreign service officer, Klosson is scheduled to replace Frank C. Siscoe as the department's director of Soviet and Eastern European exchange staffs.

IN THIS STRATEGIC position, Klosson will be in charge of State Department authorities arranging the exchange and screening of several thousand U.S., Russian and Soviet bloc scientists, educators, artists, actors and students.

The security implications of the exchange programs Klosson will be handling are clearly indicated in testimony given a House appropriations subcommittee by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

He warned that spies are included in virtually every Soviet group that visits the U.S. — diplomats, scientists, businessmen, students and cultural exchange missions.

FBI officials credit Klosson with clearing the way for Oswald's return by sending the State Department a three-page report, dated July 11, 1961, indicating the defector had undergone a major change of heart and was not dangerous:

"Twenty months of the realities of life in the Soviet Union have clearly had a maturing effect on Oswald. He (Oswald) stated frankly that he had learned a hard lesson the hard way and that he had been completely relieved of his illusions about the Soviet Union at the same time that he aquired a new understanding and appreciation of the U.S. and meaning of freedom.

". . . Much of the arrogance and bravado which characterized him on his first visit to the embassy appears to have left him."

LITTLE-NOTICED testimony before the Warren Commission pinpointed a number of errors in the dispatch dealing with information about Marina, the Russian girl Oswald married on April 30, 1961.

Klosson's vital communication reported Oswald's bride as being Marina Nikelaevna Pusakova instead of Marina Nikelaevna Prusakova, and listed her occupation as "dental technician" instead of "assistant pharmacist."

A House appropriations subcommittee in charge of funds for U.S.-Soviet exchange programs already has questioned Abba Schwartz, head of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs, about Klosson's dispatch.

The House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, headed by Rep. Michael Feighan, D-Ohio, also is seeking further details about Klosson's dispatch, and why he is being given the important new assignment in the light of his bad judgment of Oswald.

Klosson, 46, was born in Buffalo, N.Y., and has been in the State Department since 1945. He joined the department after World War II.

AFTER ASSIGNMENT to the Division of Research on USSR and Eastern Europe, Klosson worked his way up to chief of the Research (Intelligence) Section for USSR. On July 26, 1959, he became first secretary of the U.S. embassy in Moscow and later counselor for political affairs—a diplomatic post sometimes filled by the CIA.

Klosson, fluent in Russian, received a B.S. degree from Hamilton College in 1940 and an M.A. degree from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy in 1941. He studied a year (1938-9) at the Institut Universitaire de Hautes Etudes International, Geneva, Switzerland. Before going into the military service, Klosson was an analyst for a U.S. aircraft company.

State Department Gives Own Version Of Clay-Liston Ballet

WASHINGTON — There is a tendency in Washington for important officials to hold background sessions with the press. These meetings are held ostensibly to clue in the newspapers on American policy, but what they are really held for is to justify administration actions, no matter how badly they turn out.

HAVING ATTENDED some of these backgrounders, I can't help wondering how a high administration official might have presented the government's case for last week's Sonny Liston - Cassius Clay fight.

A reporter starts the backgrounder. "Sir, do you consider the Liston-Clay fight the disaster that the newspapers have indicated it was?"

"No, we don't. I think the newspaper reporters on the scene have been talking to the wrong people—since they are there, they tend to get caught up in the hysteria of the moment. Washington doesn't consider the Clay-Liston fight a disaster at all. It went more or less according to the way we thought it would."

"A STORY indicated that at the beginning of the fight the State Department was supporting Sonny Liston, but when they realized he didn't have a chance, they shifted their support to Clay."

"We categorically deny this. The State Department remained neutral, and our only role was to keep the fighting from getting out of hand. I don't believe anyone can deny the fighting was kept to a minimum and a great deal of bloodshed was avoided. Our critics have failed to mention this."

"Sir, could you comment on the role that referee Joe Walcott played in the fight? There has been talk that he panicked when Liston was knocked down."

"WE FEEL Mr. Walcott did a magnificent job in a very difficult situation and we felt at the time that he had no choice but to do what he felt was necessary to stop the fighting."

"Does the United States prefer Clay to Liston as the world champion?"

"It is not for us to decide what kind of heavyweight champion the people should have. But we have to deal with Clay whether we like it or not. No matter what you may think about Clay, he is anti-Communist."

"The first reports from the fight, sir, indicated that Liston had been knocked out by a left. Later reports said it was a right to the jaw. Why didn't you clarify this?"

"Once again I feel you people have been taken in by the newspapermen on the scene. We still believe it was a left, though we can't prove it."

"There is a report that Cassius Clay may fight again in the near future. What is the administration doing to prevent this?"

"WE'VE ASKED the Organization of American Boxing Commissioners to prevent any future fights. If they are unable to deal with it, we will probably send in the 82nd Airborne Division, under a Brazilian general, of course."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Episcopal Cleric Sees Democracy Really Working In Sausalito

The other day we met Father John.

From the Big Horn country of Wyoming, Rev. John Thornton was assigned as pastor of the Episcopal Christ Church, Sausalito, last August.

Thornton compared the grandeur of Sausalito with his home country, then said, "I think Sausalito is one of the few places I have ever lived where democracy really seems to function . . . people really participate in government in this town . . . people do go to council meetings and get up petitions. . . ."

"I ALSO LIKE Sausalito because the church is really in religion, to this town what the church is in religion to the world. We are in the minority voice. In California only 37 per cent of the people belong to churches of any sort. In Sausalito there are four churches and about 6,000 plus people, one church for every 1,500. This contrasts to one church for every 500 people in other parts of the country."

Asked to comment on the church today, Thornton, 32, lively, dressed in cleric's shirt without his coat, said: "We church people are aware of our obligation — not only to talk about love and sing songs about love and teach our children about love but to love and to show the world how we do it. Otherwise we leave ourselves open to the charge of being mere talkers.

"WE'RE BEGINNING to see more and more clergymen involved in the revolutions of our time."

Asked about his part in Sausalito's Christmas decorations last December when redwood branches and Menorahs (Jewish candelabrums) were placed on lamp posts, Father John answered:

"What we were trying to do was to say, I think, that this isn't a Christian town. This is a town in which Christians live with Jews and Buddhists and atheists and yet our job is to learn to live together.

"I THINK IT would be just great if everybody in Sausalito were an Episcopalian and everyone a Christian, but everyone isn't. So you begin with this fact of life and proceed.

"The next thing to do is recognize the worth of every person and to love him simply because he is a person and let it go at that."

Thornton, who is married to an artist and has two children, is of Scottish ancestry, he said. He frequently wears his clerical shirt and collar without his coat because he finds the coat too warm and doesn't care much for formality.

"MY FATHER was a basketball coach," he said, "and, by the way, an atheist, and yet a man of the very highest principles. I saw in him a man who denied a great deal which is popularly held. But, at the same time, he was sticking to the most rigorous standards.

"I think it is a thrilling time to be a member of the Christian church, probably more thrilling than any time since the 16th Century because so much is happening. The ecumenical movement is thrilling. We are discovering our unity. Secondly, we are determined to be involved in a creative way in social revolutions of the time.

"The third thing, and this, perhaps, should be the first—we're learning theology. We are in the ecumenical movement and social revolutions because we have learned our theology. We are in these things because of a theological motive and for no other reason."

FATHER JOHN said activities in the church include a committee of concerns which works in activities such as group relations with Marin City and Mill Valley; alcoholism, conservation. He said the church is starting art classes for children this summer. "I want to baptize the arts in Sausalito. I would like to have the children of our parish taught to express themselves this way and, if possible, have a number of artists converge on the church.

"THE CLERGYMAN has the best of all jobs . . . because he's freer than most men. He can move about. He can speak his mind. According to my ordination vows, I'm supposed to speak my mind. A clergyman has so many roles to play. The playing is what makes it so much fun. I would much rather do 10 roles than sit at a punch press all day long or be an executive. . . . I even like playing sexton (church janitor) now and then."

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

After Looking At Bond Facts, Only Conclusion Is 'Yes' Vote

FUSSELMAN

THIS WEEK the column is addressed to those who are undecided as to how they will vote next Tuesday on the bond election, and also to those who have been thinking of voting against the issue. Those of you who were here prior to the acquisition of the land at the Civic Center site and the construction of the administration building know what my position has been. Perhaps those of you who were not here may have heard.

WE ARE FACED with a real problem, now, and should look it squarely in the face and not be motivated by prejudice. There is a dollar and cents decision we must make. An examination of the facts should make it pretty plain what course of action is the best for our pocketbooks.

I BELIEVE there is no question but what the board of supervisors will order the construction of the new facility to house the superior courts, the municipal courts, the district attorney's office, the sheriff's department—including the jail —the recorder's office, the probation department, public defender, the health department and public social services department (welfare).

THE MONEY to do this is made up of the following items: $2,075,000 appropriated by the county during the past three years . . . then $150,000 to be appropriated by the county this fiscal year . . . approximately $1,500,000 from sale of the court house in 1967 . . . $95,000 anticipated from sale of the health department building . . . and a federal-state grant of $750,000. The balance from the bond issue.

THIS BOND ISSUE will require a nine-cent tax for 10 years and then will decrease each year to a final 2.4 cents. This is based on anticipated interest rate of 3⅛ per cent.

THE CAPITAL improvements program adopted by the board of supervisors calls for a 30-cent tax this year, which includes nine cents for the bonds, if they pass.

IF THEY FAIL to pass and a pay - as - you - go method is used, a rate of 57 cents will be required for a three-year interval. This would be an increase of 48 cents over what would be needed to amortize the bonds.

THE LEASE and lease-back method, where the county leases the necessary ground to a non-profit organization, who inturn issues bonds (without a vote of the people), and then leases the building back to the county until the total bonds and interest is paid off, plus carrying charges (which could go from $500,000 to $1,000,000).

MY RECOMMENDATION is this: In spite of all the conversation that is going on, I am convinced that this board will carry out the building program.

THE BONDS will be the least expensive and the cost will be born by future taxpayers as well as the present.

VOTE THE BONDS!

(Political Advertisement) (Political Advertisement) (Political Advertisement) (Political Advertisement) (Political Advertisement)

HERE ARE THE FACTS YOU NEED ON THE CIVIC CENTER BONDS FOR NEXT WEEK'S ELECTION

WHAT IS TO BE VOTED ON AT THE SPECIAL ELECTION JUNE 8th?

PROPOSITION "A" — the bond issue to complete the second major unit of the Civic Center. It will house the Courts, related law enforcement and correctional agencies, and ten other County departments now widely scattered in out-of-date buildings and offices.

The measure will provide for $7,750,000 in bonds to be added to the $2,000,000 in moneys already accumulated, with further income to be realized from the sale of the present Court House, and from State and Federal grants. These funds total $11,756,000, the cost of the new structure.

IS THE NEW WING NECESSARY?

The present Court House was built in 1872 for a countywide population of 7,500 people. The present jail is so old and so dangerous that it is about to be condemned by the State Fire Marshall, and the court rooms have already reached their capacity. Under a quirk in the law, any judge who does not have a court room can order the sheriff to build or rent forthwith whatever the judge needs.

WHAT DOLLAR ADVANTAGES DOES THE CIVIC CENTER OFFER MARIN TAXPAYERS?

In addition to the increased governmental efficiency resulting from properly housed offices, the Civic Center has become one of the principal attractions for dollar-spending tourists in Northern California. Already some 80,000 tourist-visitors a year come to see it. State Department officials indicate it ranks with Muir Woods among the places foreign visitors most ask to see in the Bay Area.

HOW DO CONSTRUCTION COSTS COMPARE?

The Sonoma County Court House now under construction is costing $2.00 more per square foot. The San Francisco Hall of Justice, generally recognized as "a triumph of architectural mediocrity", cost their taxpayers $10.00 more per square foot, based on today's construction costs, than Marin's new facility.

WILL THE CIVIC CENTER WING BE BUILT ANYWAY?

Yes! Every expert agrees this new wing is essential to meet current as well as future needs, and the Board of Supervisors have properly committed themselves to construct it. The real issue is not whether we build the building—the question is how we, as taxpayers, finance it.

WHAT ARE THE ALTERNATIVE METHODS?

1) The so-called "delay-and-pay-as-you-go" device. This would require waiting at least two years which itself would increase construction costs by over $1,000,000, due to inflationary trends in building costs. More significant, it would double the present tax rate for the Civic Center.

2) The "lease and lease-back" method. This intricate procedure would hike costs by an extra $600,000 . . . again wasting public funds.

3) The Proposition "A" bond approach. By contrast this enables immediate construction, thereby saving hundreds of thousands of dollars over the other methods—and without increasing the tax rate. Marin County has incurred no bonded indebtedness for forty years, and hence we are able to get the unusually low interest rate of 3.125 per cent or lower.

WILL FUTURE RESIDENTS PAY A PORTION OF THE COST?

Yes. One of the principal advantages of the bond method of financing is that it will require those who come to live in Marin County during the 25 years to pay their share of the cost of those facilities from which they too will benefit. They will pay about one-half of the costs.

WHO IS SUPPORTING PROPOSITION "A"?

City Councils, such as Belvedere, Corte Madera, Fairfax, Mill Valley, Novato, Sausalito, Tiburon, etc. Organizations, such as the Marin Development Foundation; the Marin Visitors Bureau; Marin Property Owners Association; San Rafael, Mill Valley, Sausalito, and other Chambers of Commerce; Marin Labor Council, etc. and all leading newspapers throughout the County.

WILL THE CIVIC CENTER BONDS INCREASE MY TAXES? NO!

The bond method of financing will not require any increase in taxes.

(The reason — the current tax rate now contains 20 cents which is allocated for the Civic Center. But only 9 cents will be needed to retire the bonds, and even this declines to 2½ cents over the 25-year life of the bonds. The result — the remaining 11 cents we are now paying is freed for other purposes such as roads, and could even result in a tax cut.)

By contrast, the so-called "delay and pay-as-you-go" method would increase the average homeowner's tax bill by over $25.00 a year.

Artist's Attic?

Nope—here it's a studio on the lower floor the whole length of the house! And the artistic atmosphere isn't confined to the studio either. Upstairs you'll find stained glass (really old ones—not modern plastic) enhancing beautifully paneled walls — custom made Austrian drapes—3 large elegant bedrooms and one of the baths even has GOLD LEAF used generously! The electric kitchen is done in dark woods to match the house and is completely equipped. The only thing the artist owner hasn't left her mark on is the magnificent view of hilltops and valleys from every window! If you are looking for a truly polished background for yourself and your possessions this is it, and the cost will be just $36,000.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Get A Suntan If You Must, But It's Not Good For Skin

VAN DELLEN

The sun has fascinated man since the days of creation but in the last 50 years many have slanted their worship toward the acquisition of a deep suntan. We have forgotten the lessons learned by the Arabs centuries ago. They swathed the head in a turban and the body in robes because man does not have the protective feathers of birds or the hide and hair of animals.

During the last 10 years, interest has been renewed in the reactions of human skin to these rays. More people use protective sunscreening preparations. A severe sunburn is uncomfortable and may be followed by permanent damage. Microscopic studies of the skin, before and after, show residual scarring. Chronic exposure to sunlight is serious; it ages the skin, stimulates freckling and the production of sharply-defined areas of dark brown pigmentation. It also is associated with skin cancer.

VISIBLE SIGNS of aging are accelerated by habitual exposure. Too much ultraviolet causes dryness, atrophy, and loss of elasticity of the skin. This is followed by wrinkling and the development of visible capillaries or tiny spider veins on the surface. Many degenerative changes that occur in the deeper layers of skin are related more to total sun exposure than to age. These abnormalities occur mainly in exposed parts. Covered skin remains soft and beautiful for many decades, demonstrating the harmful effects of overexposure.

Tanning is nature's way of protecting the skin from old Sol. Pigment forms a screening device to shut out the rays. In this respect, a tan is an abnormality prized by many because it creates a healthy and vigorous appearance. It is a status symbol among some. Let's enjoy the sun, but be sensible.

MANY FAIR-SKINNED blondes and redheads have too little pigment and burn before they tan. In some ways they are lucky and the majority are wary of direct rays. But research has developed products that stimulate pigment and many of them can obtain a tan—if they must.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

KIDNEY STONE

Mrs. G.F. writes: I'm in my eighth month of pregnancy and a kidney stone has been discovered. Is an operation necessary?

REPLY

If you are not too uncomfortable, your physician probably will advise you to let well enough alone until the baby has been born. If the stone is acting up and causing pain, it may be necessary to treat the condition the same as in nonpregnant women.

LOWER BACK BONE

G.U. writes: Where is the sacrum?

REPLY

This triangular-shaped bone at the base of the spine is located just below the small of the back. Its tip is the coccyx, or tailbone. The sacrum once was called the sacred bone because of the belief that it did not deteriorate on death and would act as the foundation for the body on Resurrection Day.

INFERTILITY

G.K. writes: Can uterine fibroids cause sterility?

REPLY

Yes, especially when a tumor protrudes into the uterine cavity.

Today's Health Hint—Tension can cause insomnia.

Collier said yesterday that of the 19,000 airplanes in the state, only about 13,000 owners now pay taxes on them.

Retarded Children Aid Measure Gains

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Mentally retarded children would get an additional $1.5 million in state aid under a new program pending today on the Assembly floor.

The Ways and Means Committee yesterday approved the bill by Assemblyman Jerome R. Waldie, D-Antioch. It would add aid to the retarded youngsters who remain at home or are treated in their home community. State hospitals now offer the only state program for such children.

MARIN FILM FARE

'Major Dundee' Opening In Novato This Sunday

By LES DARD

Here's what's happening at Marin movie houses this weekend:

NOVATO THEATER

History in the frontier West is brought to life in "Major Dundee," opening Sunday. It stars Charlton Heston and Richard Harris.

The setting is New Mexico territory, 1864. Apaches slaughter a troop of cavalry, leaving bodies hanging by the heels and strewn about the landscape.

At a nearby prison fort, Major Dundee decides to take action. He pulls together a raggle-taggle group of cuthroats, renegades, Union soldiers and a half-dozen Confederate prisoners with their captain.

The disorganized group, torn within itself with racial and other hatreds, chases the Indians into Mexico. They end up fighting not only the Apaches, but Maximillian's French army.

Co-featured is "Baby, the Rain Must Fall."

SEQUOIA THEATER

Gregory Peck plays an amnesia victim in trouble in "Mirage," starting Sunday.

In the thrilling tale, while trying to find some clue to his past, he is continually being pursued by two vicious hoodlums.

Hoping to find the explanation for his present torture in his past life, he hires private detective Walter Matthau, but Matthau can't handle the job.

Even a psychiatrist won't aid Peck — he thinks the amnesia sufferer is sought by the police, and refuses to help.

101 DRIVE-IN

Now showing is "Kiss Me, Stupid," a picture that has enjoyed popularity since its condemnation by the Catholic Legion of Decency.

Unfortunately, such a ban cannot improve its quality.

Dean Martin, Kim Novak, Ray Walston and Felicia Farr populate this comedy of sex and spice and nothing very nice.

MOTOR MOVIES

Stunning entertainment starts Sunday in "Cleopatra," easily the most lavish film ever made. A spectacular, yes, but not in the sense of fakery. Liz Taylor stars.

It is the story of the ancient Egyptian queen and her dependencies upon Rome.

Cleo's first alliance is with Caesar, played by Rex Harrison, who gives the role depth and consistency. Then, in the second half of the film, Richard Burton stars as Anthony, more lover than hero — an exciting performance.

RAFAEL THEATER

The first two James Bond films are now on screen:

There's "Dr. No," with Sean Connery playing Agent 007 in the story of a nuclear scientist who wants to rule the world. At the bottom of the trouble is Dr. No, who is working on an involved plan to interfere with rocket projects that will make him master of all men.

The co-feature is the second Bond film, "From Russia With Love."

LARK THEATER

Held over is the beautiful Japanese allegory, "Woman in the Dunes."

A young entomologist on a holiday seeks lodging and is taken to a widow's shack in a deep dunes pit. In the morning, all means of egress are gone, and he is trapped with the young widow.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Held over again is the cinematic masterpiece which won three Oscars, "Zorba, the Greek."

This film paints a portrait of two kinds of people: those who drink deeply of life, and those who simply sip.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

One of the biggest — in number of comedians participating and length of playing time, at least—comedies ever to come this way is held over.

It's a "Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," when a group of drivers start a wild chase in search of a fabulous treasure.

PLAYHOUSE TIBURON

Cary Grant is the central character in "Father Goose," held over, an engaging comedy in which Leslie Caron and Trevor Howard share the spotlight.

FOR MODEL U.N.

Former Redwood Student Now 'Secretary-General'

When Charles Katungi's classmates at Redwood High School prophesied that he would someday be the secretary-general of the United Nations, even Chuck doubted that it would ever come true.

Yet, in just five years this forecast has at least partially been fulfilled. Katungi has been selected as secretary-general for the 17th annual session of Model United Nations at Lewis and Clark College in Portland, Oregon, for 1967.

The Model United Nations, established in 1948, is composed of 125 colleges and universities. It is patterned after the United Nations with each school representing a separate nation.

This year Katungi served as chairman of the Lewis and Clark delegation as it represented his home country, Uganda.

'U.N.' secretary-general

While secretary-general, Katungi will make all arrangements including housing, feeding and entertaining for some 1,500 visitors, he will also have to arrange for all meeting facilities and press coverage.

Out of the remainder of his $50,000 budget, Katungi hopes to bring several guest speakers to Lewis and Clark College for the Model United Nations and the college's centennial.

Next summer Katungi will travel to United Nations headquarters in New York, where he will receive three months of training in the secretary-general's office.

Katungi will be the first foreign student ever to serve as secretary-general of the Model United Nations.

He was one of the first American Field Service students from Uganda when he attended Redwood High School during 1960-1961.

While at Redwood, Katungi was very active in student affairs. He appeared in dramatic productions and ran the 440-yard dash on the school's track team. He lived with Judge and Mrs. Richard Sims Jr. and family in Tiburon.

In Angust of 1961 Katungi returned to Uganda and finished a year's study for Cambridge School certificate in three and one half months. During this time he also worked as a research assistant for Prof. T. K. Hopkins from Columbia University.

Since entering Lewis and Clark, Katungi has served as class senator, class president, member of Blue Key honorary society. Recently he was chosen as the junior class "Outstanding Man of the Year." While doing all this he has maintained a "B" average.

Last summer he worked at the African Pavillion at the New York's World Fair, but was unable to raise the necessary $1,500 for the trip home to Uganda. Because his Model United Nations activities will postpone his graduation a year, Katungi plans to try again this summer to visit his family in Uganda.

Judge Overrules Suit Demurrer

Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court Wednesday overruled a demurrer by defendants in a million-dollar libel suit filed by Drummond John McCunn, former superintendent of Contra Costa Junior College District.

The demurrer alleged no malice was contained in a report entitled "Report of an Investigation—Contra Costa Junior College District," basis for dismissal of McCunn on June 30, 1962.

Defendants are California Teachers Assn., California School Boards Assn., California Junior College Assn., California Assn. of School Administrators, 10 named school officials and 327 "John Does."

The demurrer had been taken under advisement by Judge Keating Tuesday. McCunn alleges in his 1963 suit, transferred to Marin County from Contra Costa County, that the report contains false, malicious and defamatory statements.

Further hearing on the suit has not yet been scheduled.

Students Set Europe Tour; To Meet Communist Youth

"Most people have heard about Communists but never seen one. This group will get an opportunity to talk with young Communists and exchange ideologies."

Allan R. Ahlsten, Tamalpais High School physical education teacher, spoke of a dozen students he will accompany on a European study tour starting June 22.

The study tour has been held annually since 1947 for college students, but this year was opened for high school students in the Bay Area. Nine Bay Area high schools are participating.

Eleven students from Tamalpais High School and one from Terra Linda High will be in the tour group headed by Ahlsten, along with about 12 students from Menlo-Atherton High School in Atherton.

First discussion meeting in the tour of 12 cities will be with the Young Pioneers Republic, a Communist youth group of high school age in East Berlin.

Other study visits include attending houses of Parliament and meeting with Eton school students in London, a briefing by a French Government official in Paris on the Common Market and its effect on European economy, and a lecture and discussion of political and economic history of Switzerland at Zermatt.

Ahlsten, who lives in Corte Madera, said the sponsoring student travel overseas program of Berkeley has tried for three years to make arrangements for the East-West meeting with the Communist youths and finally effected it this year.

"We will be in each city three days," he said. "Students will sightsee in addition to their study activities." At Washington D.C., the State Department will brief the youngsters on becoming "Unofficial American Ambassadors."

Most of the students are seniors;they pay their own way, $1,497. Travel for the tour which ends July 28 will be by jet plane, steamer, railway and bus.
